GOLF TRIP 2016 Commercial Golf Club - Albury

Please Note: We have booked the golf trip this year and we will be going to Commercial Golf course in Albury. The date of the golf trip will be Friday 9th to Sunday 11th DECEMBER 2016. The Cost is approximately $330.00. We have booked for 27 players (3 people per room) so please book it into your calendar and let me know if you are a definite attendee.

PLEASE NOTE THE NEW GOLF TRIP DATE

The club has pretty much reached capacity as we have only booked tee times for 32 players for each golf course for the year so it is vitally important to confirm your status for each month as early as possible. At the bottom of this email every member has been marked as status unknown and it is your responsibility to send us a message to say if you are in or out. Until we receive a text message, email or phone call you are not guaranteed a spot. We cannot promise we can accommodate more than 32 players so it is a matter of first in first served and the earlier we get numbers the better the odds of contacting the course to try to get an extra few spots if we need them.

Beacon Hills Golf Course Results

June

Have you ever had that sinking feeling that you have just made a major mistake and you have totally stuffed things up. It is a horrible feeling that makes you sick in the stomach and when it happens all you can hope is that no one was watching. When the "OH SH!?" moment happens in front of an audience you start to feel sick in the stomach and your head feels like it is about to explode. When you are trying to show off in front of a group of your peers and you totally F#%K UP all you can pray for is the ground to open up from under you and swallow you whole, just like it did to your new Ford Ranger 4wd ute. When you have got that sinking feeling, your feeling sick in the stomach, you feel like your head is going to explode and the earth hasn't opened up to swallow you whole, then you had just better just hope that Stevie Powne is pretty close by, with his 4WD, a snatch strap and the know how to pull your bogged up to the axles car out of the mud.

In order to enlighten the ill-informed let me try to paint you a picture and relive the scene that played out at Beacon Hills.

After a 5 hour walk around the rolling hills of the Golf Course a group of blokes wearing Blue Polo shirts were standing around the eskie, enjoying a cold beer from their new stubby holders while talking dribble while recounting the tales of woe and celebrating their fortunes from the trek around the golf course.

Brendan MacIsaac was quite meek as he tried to explain to the animal huggers and vegetarians how he had on two separate occasions smashed his golf ball into the flesh of the native marsupials grazing on the lush grasses of the golf course.

Whether it is a reflection of Brendan's golfing prowess and power however the kangaroo's literally remained unmoved as he walked up apologetically and set up to play his next shot from under skippy's carcass.

This was appealing to RickTurcinovic who suddenly didn't feel so bad when it was discovered that he had caused death and destruction to his golf buggy and driver when the two objects collided at speed after a misdirected golf swing failed to make contact with the ball.

As the conversation opened up and the beers flowed, Phil Plane made his confession. Phil, who is otherwise known by his friends and playing partners as Woody, admitted that that he had actually smacked his balls into more bushes than a second rate porn star.

Ben Nichol entered into the exchange by recounting his shot on the ninth hole where he somehow miraculously managed to hit his shot even though he was snookered behind the base of a tree with his ball sitting amongst the exposed roots. Initially as he stood over his shot it looked as if he was totally rooted however Ben was able to extricate his ball and it finished up landing on the green.

Greg Breasley fared a little worse than Ben, his attraction to the trees was more long term and he suffered on the score card as he got deeper and deeper into the scrub. Greg tried hitting in all different directions but anything he did still left him in the same position.

Stu Coops commiserated as his hopes for a 2016 monthly title were rightfully taken from his grip when he was forced to play a left handed swing from the trees on the 18th hole.

Gerard MacIsaac on the other hand relished on the 18th hole being set up for a left hander and he consequently made a brilliant birdie to tie the scores on the last hole and consequently he won the day by beating Stu on a count back.

Damien Vanterpool flexed his muscles and puffed up his chest when he was awarded the longest drive prize despite the fact that he only hit off the tee with an iron. There was suggestion that Damien should be fined or not awarded the Longest Drive because he didn't actually use a driver however after discussion with the rules committee and Fine Master it has been decided that all of the players who were incapable of beating a guy using a six iron off the tee should themselves be fined for their incompetence. So we look forward to $24 be tipped into the fine jar next month from all concerned.

Big Mick had very little to say, after being left holding the Beer Wench vest last round, Mick however let his golfing do the talking this month and he finished in 4th spot and has vowed never to come last again.

Mick drove sober for the first time and whether the two are linked or not we can't be sure but he failed to win the longest drive competition.

After 5 years without a license, Mick could comfortable given the longest non drive award, however this week he finally got his permit back.

Keep in mind however if you are wanting to reclaim a few favors and get him to pick you up to drive you to golf one day soon you had better join the long queue, I think his car is already booked out till September 2019. The good news is that Mick is back on the road and driving again however the bad news for the social club is our bar sales have already dropped by 45%.

As the critique of the golf course get deeper as the beer flowed freer, the common theme was the difficult sloping greens which made putting difficult. Considering the wet conditions the greens were still lightning fast. The three putt monkey vest did the rounds from player to player. The social group as a whole collected a total of 82 three putt greens and 7 four putts.

The best theory to avoid a 3 putt or so it seems was to chip in and avoid putting all together. The club set a new record with a staggering 10 gobblers for the day including Rick Turcinovic who scored 2x chip-ins in a row on the 6th and 7th holes and amazingly he then lipped out for the third in a row in the 8th hole. Rick, had only 2 putts in the last 4 holes on the front nine, which was an amazing effort and well worth a bit of chest puffing and showing off.

Speaking of showing off and chest pumping, this is probably where we should elaborate on a slight incident which occurred involving Brendan Seagrave. After a few confidence boosters and at the mercy of his encouraging co-pilot (Peter Hutson) who for the entire day kept hounding Grumpy about all of the reasons why Brendan shouldn't have bought a ford ranger, instead of a jeep.

As he jumped in the pride and joy to go home Brendan decided it would be a good idea to show off and prove to Peter and all others why his new car was a worthy investment.

Rather than drive out of the car park as had all before him, Grumpy thought it would be funny to drive over and down the 30 degree angle bank in front of him.

The drop would have been just over 5 meters, the terrain was steep and after the recent rains the clay surface was very greasy.

To his credit Brendan was able to successfully negotiate the difficult conditions and despite the tail end sliding out behind him and nearly taking out the 30,000 litre water tank attached to the back of the greens keepers shed, he was able to find to his way to the flat ground. For most that would have been enough to prove his point. He could pound his chest and say look at that boys I did it, but not for Brendan. Soon after his heart was pounding in his chest as he suddenly came to the horrible realization of the consequences of his foolish actions.

Grumpy wanted to prove his intellect to Peter and quoted the Newtonian law of gravity "What goes down, must go up." What a dum8ar5e he must be, because he had the quote the around the wrong way around, but he still decided to drive back up the hill anyway. Half way up the slope it was blatantly obvious that he had bitten off more than he could chew and with wheels spinning, engine screaming, and gear boxing clunking he reversed his way back down to the bottom and that is where he left it.

Well nearly, Brendan nearly had to leave the car at Beacon Hills because he managed to get his Ford Ranger bogged down to the kick boards in mud and he was not going anywhere.

You can just imagine the hilarity as the boys in Blue polo's raised their cans in the new stubby holders triumphantly as a sheepish Brendan pondered the severity of his predicament. Ronnie Parsons who is usually very economical with his words was in full voice as he toasted Grumpy's demise and said "I was gonna leave early today I am so pleased I stayed around to watch this charade.

Having emptied his limited brain power reciting incorrectly the Newtonian law of Gravity, Grumpy was stuck for ideas, and stuck in the mud for that matter.

Big Mick wasn't any help to him either, Mick just laughed and said to Grumpy "Mate I haven't driven a car in 5 years and even still there is no way I would have got myself into your position even when I got done for drink driving and I blew 0.38."

Cliffy Rowe nearly got bogged himself as he wandered around in the slushy mud taking more photos than a Hollywood paparazzi cameraman on Grammy Night.

Highway lived up to his name and no sooner did it look like there was trouble and he was in the car and hit the road as fast as he could.

When he asked Pete for help the answer was simple and as blunt as it could be expected. "You should have bought a jeep" followed by quote of the day "Your gonna need a bigger boat, well a boat anyway."

Luckily for Brendan, amongst all the rabble and hilarity there was a savior, Stevie Powne an experienced off-road campaigner was able to navigate his 11 year old real 4WD a Toyota Land Cruiser Prado onto some solid ground and he was then able to produce a snatch trap from the boot and was able to winch the crippled vehicle to safety.

After the successful rescue mission Steve returned back to the eskie with full expectations that he would be followed thereafter with Brendan in tow who would gratefully offer to buy him a beer as a means of thanks. No such luck for Steve, Grumpy was off and out of the car park quicker than Tony Grasso after a bad round of golf or when a fine payment is due.

Steve is still waiting for Brendan and his mad mate to say thank-you so keep your eyes out for a couple of geese in a black ford ranger covered in mud.

As for the golf at Beacon Hills, well in summary the scores were on average 8 shots worse per player than what was achieved at Spring Park. Gerard MacIsaac was the best of the group hitting an impressive back nine, closing with a birdie to win the day. Stu Coops ran into second place however probably he never really deserved to win, as he was only saved by some very good putting whereas his ball striking was well below par. Stu had 12 putts on the back nine including two chip ins from the fringe of the green.

Pete Hutson was a last minute entry, rumor is that he only turned up when he realized at the practice range on Saturday afternoon that he was in good form and he didn't want to waste the opportunity to post a good Sunday Leave Pass score. We are so thankful that he turned up because the 13 points we need to give him for running in third place is nothing compared to the years of entertainment and joy we are going to get out of the grumpy getting bogged story.

Mick Harper showed he is still capable hitting a good ball, in spite of being a double digit handicapper for the first time in many years, Mick was able to card a respectable, low eighties round and was therefore rewarded with a top 4 position.

Scandal of the month aligns itself with the circumstances behind 4th place finisher Cliff Rowe. Cliff had his handicap savaged as he was converted from the old AGU system to the SLOPE handicap system. Cliff lost 10 strokes over night and the outcome was that he become the best golfer in the club with a handicap of 6.5 but in the process was robbed of a certain victory had he been still playing off a 16 handicap.

Under the slope system which is used once a player has played more than 5 rounds, the player's handicap is determined using the following formula.

As Cliff had a blinder of a round at Dorset earlier in the year (75 off the stick) his handicap has become his best round played multiplied by 0.93. This was a savage penalty especially since he lost 10 strokes and Todd Neilson last month was complaining when he only lost about 2.5 shots once he was converted to the new system.

As Cliff amasses more rounds over time the handicap will become more accurate as the outlying score is absorbed into the sum total of a greater number of rounds, as you can see demonstrated in the table above.

Even with the low handicap Cliff managed to finish the day with the best score off the stick (82), (perhaps he is a single marker after-all) and he collected another 11 championship points for a fifth place finish.

Congratulations to Chris Sfiligoj who was able to successfully complete the entire 18 holes with the same golf ball which is a real feat considering he lost 7 on one hole at Devils Bend.

Newell Richards was able to hit his second birdie in as many months, highway is starting to make a habit of putting 2's on his score card and in saying that we don't mean 2 putt greens which 6 months ago would have been a miracle in itself.

Highway actually managed to birdie the 2nd hole a long downhill hole protected by a deep bunker. If you want to hear about the shot you can just ask anyone three groups either in front or behind Newell's Group because he told absolutely everybody who he saw about it and that included a group of blokes who were out enjoying a leisurely day at Beacon Hills who weren't actually even part of the Sunday Leave Pass Social Club.

Ironically from what our informants tell us it wasn't even a good shot either, evidently Newell's ball rolled down the sloping elevated fairway, bounced through the bunker, hit the rake and ricocheted back out and on to the green. Luckily for Highway they don't leave enough room on the scorecard to write the story so the shot will go down in the archives as a NTP title and a birdie credited onto his career highlights reel irrespective of how the ball actually got there.

11th Hole	Mick Harper
13th Hole	Brendan Seagrave
15 th Hole	Tom Kellythorn

Reminder
The ball must be clearly on the CUT surface of the green or fairway to win NTP or longest drive. If it is not on the fairway it doesn't count.

Each player won 1 ball each.

Golf Balls are owed to the following people:

Gerard MacIsaac	x3	Winner at Beacon Hills
Steve O'Sullivan	x3	Winner at Spring Park
Mark Sfiligoj	x1	NTP 8 th Hole Centenary Park
Mick Harper	x10	Eagle 3 on 5 th Hole Devils Bend

PLEASE NOTE: This year the monthly winner has the option of exchanging the number of balls owed to Raffle tickets for the end of year prize draw.

Just a reminder that for every round you play you are awarded a raffle ticket to go towards the end of year raffle, then extra tickets are issued if you wear the official club shirt plus extra tickets can also be won by winning a hole in the monthly skins competition.

“SKINS” were distributed to those players good enough to win a hole outright. If more than 1 player got the lowest score on a hole it is Jackpotted until an outright winner occurs.

Skins at Beacon Hills were won by:

1	Jackpot
2	Newell Richards
3	Jackpot
4	Phil Plane
5	Jackpot
6	Todd Neilson
7	Jackpot
8	Jackpot

18	Jackpot

Number of skins won
Mick Harper	x6
Damien Vanterpool	x3
Newell Richards	x2
Phil Plane	x2
Todd Neilson	x2

It is rare for the low markers to score a skins Jackpot as the raffle tickets are usually pilfered off them by the high markers claiming a four or five pointer with two shots deducted from a par. Congratulations to Mick Harper who after 6 birdies and eagle this year finally managed to win a skin jackpot (6 skins) with a Par on the most difficult hole on the golf course.

As a new member of the Social Club the Callaway Handicapping system is used to give the player a daily played to handicap for the first couple of rounds. Once they have played 3 rounds they are given a temporary club handicap using the original AGU handicapping system. After 5 rounds they are then switched across to the current slope handicapping system.

Adjustment: -2, 1, 2, 3

This system is used for determining fair allowances for social golf events that attract novices or occasional golfers. A player's Callaway handicap is determined after each round by deducting from his/her 18 hole gross score the scores of the worst individual holes during the first 16 holes of the round.

In the computation of handicaps under this system:

- No hole may be scored at more than twice its par,
- half strokes count as a whole,
- the 17th and 18th holes are never deducted,

For example if a player scores 99 on the day their handicap would be calculated as the sum total of their (3 worst holes) +1

If a player scores 82 on the day their handicap would be calculated as the sum total of their (worst + ½ the 2nd worst hole) -1

If a player scores 120 on the day their handicap would be calculated as the sum total of their (five worst holes) +2

After 3 rounds they will be allocated a temporary handicap using the old AGU handicapping formula and then after 5 rounds they are elevated onto the official Slope handicapping system which was use thereafter for all club competitions.

He will gladly do a good deal for any Sunday Leave Pass members wanting to order business cards, fliers or any other printed material. To find out more information about what he can do for you he can be contacted on 0438147788.

Remember that any printing job ordered through DNR print via the social club, Dale will donate 5% of the proceeds directly back to social club which offers us the opportunity to provide better prizes for everyone and it is good to keep your business opportunities within the network if it is possible. Wood Tech, my previous company Hudson Bond and even the Super-coach (believe it or not) have actually used Dale's business and everyone that had done so speaks very highly of the service and work that he produces.

Evergreen Winery Tours

Yarra Ranges Wine Regions

Sponsored by

For those who were not aware of the "hole in one prize", any player who scores a hole in one or an Albatross during a Sunday Leave Pass event will win a complimentary Chauffer Driven Winery Tour for 2x people through the Yarra Valley, courtesy of Evergreen Winery Tours. So start aiming at the hole we want to give it away this year there was a few close calls over the years but we are still yet to achieve the perfect shot despite more than 12000 attempts since 2004.

(In 1999, Golf Digest reported, "One insurance company puts a PGA Tour pro's chances at 1 in 3,756 and an amateur's at 1 in 12,750.")
The Golf Digest study even breaking the odds down by quality of play:

- Professional Tour player making an ace: 3,000 to 1
- Low-handicapper making an ace: 5,000 to 1
- Average player making an ace: 12,000 to 1

Based on this information we are due any time so make sure you turn up to play as it may just be you that claims the ultimate prize.
