Centenary Park Golf Course Results

May

The Centenary Park round should be re-named “The Presidents Cup” especially since El Presidente’ Steve O’Sullivan was the king of Frankston. SOS played a faultless round shooting the lowest score for the day, out pointing the so called low markers big Mick and Gerard. Steve hit 81 for a Nett 68 to claim his share of the new Woodtech branded Sunday Leave Pass Prize Golf Balls.

Coming in close behind SOS was the super-coach, who was dragged up to a higher skill level after being paired up with Gerard, John Benbow and Tony Senior. In the company of greatness the Supercoach was able to perform above himself and posted his best score in nearly 3 years. Interestingly, although his handicap was at least 5 shots higher than any of his playing partners, the Super-coach persisted in incessantly offering advice and coaching tips to the all three of his playing partners. When asked for comments about his score of Nett 69 the Super-coach was very quick to point out that it was the first 69 he has scored since he got married in April 2012. His round was good enough for 2nd spot and 14 championship points.

It wasn’t quite as happy a story for the Super-coach’s brother Chris who returned to the social club after a short hiatus. Over the Summer Chris gave up his golf career to concentrate on playing Cricket. The decision was a wise one, since he was rewarded for his efforts by winning both the club and the League batting average trophies with an average that Don Bradman could only ever have dreamed of. Chris’ average with the bat this year was 105 which coincidentally is pretty much the same as his average score with a golf Club in his hand. In 53 rounds with the Sunday Leave Pass Social Club he has played 5535 strokes at an average of 104.43 per game although his average may have gone up a whisker this month after he shot a very lackluster score of 115 at Centenary Park which just happens to be his home course.

The day didn't start off too well for Chris. He was actually out driven by Big Ball Breasley on the first hole. Greg out drove Chris' ball by a mere 47cm but the funny part was that Greg's ball was 12 meters short of the ladies markers and therefore the pair were both up for a $5 fine for not hitting the ball past the squatters tee. If that wasn't enough Chris also managed to have an air swing and was caught by his brother throwing his club after yet another crappy shot.

While Chris struggled all day, Big Ball Breasley did actually manage to recover from his disastrous 12 on the first hole. In fact Greg actually finished in 5th position in spite of his 12 and an 8 on the 6th hole.

On the longest drive hole Chris ended up standing over a putt which was right at the front of the green and the requirement with the putter was such that he needed to hit the ball further than he had managed to hit it with the driver at the other end of the hole.

Peter Hutson was extremely unlucky not to win the Longest Drive prize. Peter was holding the title right through until the very last golfer of the day stepped up to the tee. Despite surviving attacks from the usual power hitters, Big Mick, Gerard, Paul Blizzard and SOS it wasn't until player number 27 smashed a perfect draw long and down the middle of the fairway that Peter was dethroned.

After a big wind up and powerful blow from the last golfer on the day, the ball made a low pass straight over Peter Hutson's longest drive marker, so close in fact was the ball to the marker that it actually hit the whiteboard pen as it flew past. The impact of the ball sent the texta spinning around its string binding and miraculously while pivoting on its axis the pen lid fell off and wrote "Trevor the Bushranger" over poor Peter's name.

Gerard MacIsaac was never in the hunt for the longest drive. He was more in contention for the shortest shot of the day. Gerard twice went better than Chris Sfiligojs' airswing by hitting the ball backwards. While trying to steer his ball between two trees on the 7th hole Gerard accidentally hit the trunk flush in the middle and as a consequence his ball suddenly flew back at him at full throttle sending him ducking for cover and the ball actually finished 15 meters further behind from where he had played the shot from in the first place.

Even worse though was Gerard's shot on the par 5 ninth hole when he managed hit the ball right on the top and buried his attempted three wood straight into the ground where it sat. The ball went straight into the ground and created a plug mark 4cm deep before it plopped out backwards and finished more than a meter behind where Gerard stood in his follow through pose.

Paul Blizzard had little trouble getting his ball going forwards. On the 18th hole Paul tried to extricate a badly plugged ball from the bunker at the front of the green. Unfortunately Paul caught a bit too much of the ball and he didn't catch enough sand and therefore the result was a skinny shot out of the trap. Paul's ball flew low and hard across the green bounced off the path and then traversed the steps up into the pro-shop verandah. You can imagine the look of horror on the face of the poor unsuspecting guy who was walking out of the shop at the same instance that Paul's ball bounced off the top step just missing him. The surprised victim watched on in disbelief as Paul's ball then ricocheted backwards down the steps and rolled along the cart path before coming to rest on the cut grass just behind the 9th putting green.

If that wasn't enough for one person to contend with imagine how the same poor guy felt when only 15 minutes later he discovered that his bag and buggy had been stolen by a person wearing the same Smurf colored uniform as what Paul Blizzard was wearing. Evidently Newell Richards (Highway man) had decided to start loading his clubs into the car and thought it important to offer the special valet service to the club president “SOS” who was at the time enjoying the perks of free drinks from his plebe fellow members at the bar.

Unfortunately Newell mistakenly took the wrong set of golf clubs up to the car, so, while SOS’s clubs remained safely at the parking bay of the club house Newell was discovered loading a total strangers clubs into the boot of his car. If only we all could have been a fly on the wall to watch and listen to how Highway tried to explain to the rather irate 6 foot four Juventus supporter wearing a Collingwood jumper why he was in the possession of and loading the strangers golf clubs into his car.

It was a dark moment on what was otherwise a dream day for Highway especially considering, for the first time since joining the club he actually managed to avoid finishing in the beer wench position and he shot a personal best score of 119 which is a far cry from his career average of 137 shots per round. I guess the two black eyes and foot print up the bum was worth it and under the circumstances the theft of a stranger’s golf set is insignificant compared to the ensuing ASADA investigation that will happen this week.

There were some very difficult lies that popped up around the golf course. Paul Blizzard had to pay the ultimate humiliation after his ball plugged in the bunker and he couldn’t flop it out as he had hoped too.

Rick Turcinovic parked his ball up against a tree trunk on the tenth hole, the only benefit to him was that the tenth hole ran along the driving range and Rick was able to pocket nearly 96 dozen practice balls that were left strewn in the rough near where his ball was located.

Stu Coops was faced with a difficult shot when he discovered his ball had landed and buried itself under a pyramid tower of 5x other golf balls courtesy of Mick Harper.

Stu may also have played the hole of the day when he hit a snap hook off the tee on the fourth hole. While walking across the practice fairway to try to find his ball, Phil Plane called to him to let him know there was a ball on the 6th fairway that could be Stu’s. Stu was in the throws of claiming a different ball and called out to Phil “No I don’t want that one to be mine it would cost me a $2 fine for crossing over two fairways.

Needless to say the ball Stu was walking towards to claim was actually a Bridgestone 1 and therefore not his ball (Trevor picked up the ball and added it to his Bridgestone collection 2 holes later) and naturally the ball two fairways across from the 4th hole just happened to be Stu’s WoodTech Logo Sunday Leave Pass ball so he was forced to pay his $2-00 fine for the errant shot. The fine was a lot more bearable when Stu was able to execute the perfect recovery shot by hitting a 9 iron over the heads of the unsuspecting group on the 5th tee, his shot carried four big gum tree’s and landed the ball on the green only 15 feet from the hole. Stu then rolled in the hole and chalked up a miraculous birdie three from a drive that deserved to see him scoring a triple bogie at best.

While “El Presidente” took the number 1 position on the scores this month the other place rankings were hotly contested. Supercoach was one shot back on SOS with Nett 68 but then Stu Coops battled out for 3rd and 4th position. Stu Coops won on a count back because he scored 20 stableford points on the back nine compared to Greg’s 17. Fifth through to 11th position also all came down to a count back. Greg Breasley had a blistering back nine including a four pointer to finish in 5th spot. John Benbow played to his official handicap for the first time and finished in 6th spot. Tony Grasso Junior, Dale Robinson, Geoff Cooper, Andrew Clark and Mick Harper all had 76 Nett and they were allocated ranking depending on the number of points scored on the back nine and then it came down to individual hole scores starting from the eighteenth hole working backwards until a unique score was found.

Congratulations to Jon Benbow who has played three rounds with the club and has been given official Sunday Leave Pass Handicaps although he will switch like Col Ewart and Luke Chacksfield did switch across to the Slope System after playing 5 rounds.

Most of the field was left with their handicaps unchanged although Greg Parsons, Greg Breasley, Tony Grasso Junior, Super coach and SOS were all docked a fraction of a shot. This month it was all of the low markers who all seem to be experiencing the generosity of the handicapper this month. Big Mick & Gerard, Trevor, Stu and Paul Blizzard all got some extra parts of a shot back to help them through the winter months. The only high handicappers to be given a bit extra back were Greg Andrews and Tony Mac.

This year we also have been lucky enough to have Peter Hutsons' company jump on to the Sunday Leave Pass band wagon. We thank "Wood Tech" from the bottom of our hearts as they have generously sponsored the club for the cost of our golf balls. This of course is on the condition that we promise to spread their branding across the state, which shouldn't be hard as we regularly lose golf balls around all 4 corners of the Melbourne urban district.

Our new golf balls carry both the SLP and the Wood Tech logo and we have 96 dozen of them to lose. They are damn good balls. Stu Coops actually played 18 holes with the one ball so if that is the case we might find we have enough balls to keep us going for the next 5-10 years.

Special Thanks to Dale Robinson who is the longest serving sponsor for the Sunday Leave Pass Social Club. Dale runs a printing business and is offering a high quality printing service. He will gladly do a good deal for any Sunday Leave Pass members wanting to order business cards, fliers or any other printed material. To find out more information about what he can do for you he can be contacted on 0438147788.

Remember that any printing job ordered through DNR print via the social club, Dale will donate 5% of the proceeds directly back to social club which offers us the opportunity to provide better prizes for everyone and it is good to keep your business opportunities within the network if it is possible. Wood Tech, my previous company Hudson Bond and even the Super-coach (believe it or not) have actually used Dale's business and everyone that had done so speaks very highly of the service and work that he produces.

Evergreen Winery Tours

Yarra Ranges Wine Regions

For those who were not aware of the "hole in one prize", any player who scores a hole in one or an Albatross during a Sunday Leave Pass event will win a complimentary Chauffer Driven Winery Tour for 2x people through the Yarra Valley, courtesy of Evergreen Winery Tours. So start aiming at the hole we want to give it away this year there was a few close calls over the years but we are still yet to achieve the perfect shot despite more than 12000 attempts since 2004.

(In 1999, Golf Digest reported, "One insurance company puts a PGA Tour pro's chances at 1 in 3,756 and an amateur's at 1 in 12,750.")
The Golf Digest study even breaking the odds down by quality of play:

- Professional Tour player making an ace: 3,000 to 1
- Low-handicapper making an ace: 5,000 to 1
- Average player making an ace: 12,000 to 1

Based on this information we are due any time so make sure you turn up to play as it may just be you that claims the ultimate prize.
