GOLF TRIP 2015

Please Note: We have booked the golf trip this year and we will be returning to Echuca, Rich River Golf course. The date of the golf trip will be Friday 4th to Sunday 6th DECEMBER 2015. The Cost is approximately $330.00. We have booked for 27 players (3 people per room) so please book it into your calendar and let me know if you are a definite attendee by Email stodaydream@gmail.com or the links here. YES I want to take part in the golf trip this year No I will not be going to Rich River

Potentially we may reach maximum numbers for the golf trip this year. If you are a definite starter let me know ASAP as bed allocations are done as first come first served and if we can't book any extra rooms it is just too bad for those who will miss out.

Centenary Park Golf Course Results

May

Well if you haven't yet seen it posted on Facebook, twitter, Instagram, reddit, snapchat, tinder or any of the other 127 social media websites then please be advised that Highway had a good round of golf this month. Even before he had jumped in the car Newell had announced to the unsuspecting social media world that his score of 102 Nett 66 was a good chance of winning the Sunday Leave Pass Centenary Park monthly title.

Having crossed referenced handicaps and checked each player's scores and then once Andy Pugh's 99 off the stick was deemed not to be good enough to win the title, the smile on Newell's face was impossible to hide. For the first time in 2 years he threw his prosaic pills out the window and even surprised his wife on Sunday night with reciprocity to her amorous advances for the first time in three weeks.

Practice makes perfect. Highway was so committed to a posting a good performance at Centenary Park that he invested all of his time into making his dream a reality. The stay at home dad, never stayed at home, while he has been out grooving his golf swing his front lawns have been neglected and the grass is 3 foot high, (he has no back lawn as it is just a cluster of divots) the dishes are piled up in the sink, dust and cobwebs are all over the house, the floors are littered with kids toys and food scraps and the washing and ironing baskets have been left to overflow for the first time in 10 years.

Newell's Kitchen

Every day for the last 3 weeks Newell has literally dropped his kids off at school and then headed straight to the golf course or driving range where he has stayed until it was time to pick the family back up again. On Tuesday and Wednesday last week he even enrolled them in the after school care program until 6pm just so he could get another 2 and ½ hours of practice in.

The practice did pay off in the end because even with a score of 10 on the 9th hole, Newell still managed to post a Nett 66 and he won his first ever monthly title by a convincing 4 shots.

The 9th hole claimed a few victims. Stu Coops carded the day's highest single hole score with a round shattering 12 on the 9th hole. Dale, Rick, and Murph all also had bad scores on the 9th hole. There were very few nice things to say about the long Par 5 ninth hole except from Andrew Clarke who was the only player who managed to squeeze out a big drive with his new Sunday Leave Pass raffle prize Driver. Clarkey was able to lay claim to the Longest Drive crown beating the usual candidates by a good 30 meters and amazingly the smile on his face was almost as big as Newell's plus the strut that he carried for the next 2 hours was almost as confident and proud as a Hollywood A-lister on the red carpet.

Andrews Drive was a strong contender for shot of the day, however it was outpointed by a collection of other strokes of genius. Col Ewart got his round off to a flyer when he landed his bunker shot on the par 3 second hole within inches of the hole. Col bladed his ball into the steep front bank of the bunker. So skinny was his strike that not a grain of sand was dislodged from the hazard. Colin's ball crashed into the lip of the bunker, bounced 20 meter's high in the air landed on the front edge of the green. The reaction from the rebound off the banker face was incredible and the ball had so much over spin on it, that when it landed it gripped the green and spun up towards the pin and the ball came to rest only inches from the cup ready for a tap in putt.

Whenever Steve Powne found himself in the deep Centenary Park bunkers he flopped his way out of the sand with consummate ease. In contrast to Colin's attempt to extricate his ball from the bunker without moving a single grain of the sand, Steve's shot on the Par 3 thirteenth hole was a perfect blast shot which almost emptied the entire contents of the bunker out onto the green. Although the result was the same, (the ball coming to rest with in cm of the flag) the process was completely different. We are still not quite sure how he did it, especially considering you are not allowed to ground your club while addressing the ball in a bunker however the truth is that Steve took just as much sand out of the bunker during his back swing as he did during his follow through.

While some players struggled to get the ball into the cup with the putter others such as Gerard, Rick and Stu Coops all managed to hole out shots from off the green and recorded a zero putts on the scorecard.

There is a very common saying in golf which is often used. This saying is something along the lines of; "There is not enough room on the card to say how you get there it is just the score that counts." This may be true for most golfers but not for Rick Turcinovic who offered a complete running commentary on his score card about his zero putt green on the 7th hole.

Luckily for us, John Murphy didn't try to document his adventures on the fourteenth hole. For Murph to write about it on the score card it would have needed to come out as a chapter book. Evidently Murph had managed to set himself up for a short par putt after pitching his 3rd shot to within 4 feet of the flag. How he finished the hole wearing the yellow vest and with a four putt 7 on the scorecard would take too long to try to explain, but it would have been an interesting read nonetheless.

Murph is a man of little words or so it would seem, because when he finished his round with a three putt on the 18th to win the yellow vest for the fourth time, he literally, silently worked into the middle of the gathering of SLP golfers, dumped his scorecard on the table, threw his $2 fine into the fine jar and then disappeared into the club house to buy a beer without so much as muttering a single word.

Andrew Pugh also walked off the 18th green with the three putt monkey vest on and in a state of animated silence. Andy was in a complete state of shock after he witnessed what could only be described as a miracle, divine intervention or some form of magical trickery.

If you were to ask SOS about his round of golf he will tell you how the greens gave him no love at all. He will give you a running commentary how during the first 17 holes he couldn't buy a putt and how he got the wrong rub of the green over and over again. SOS will openly tell you how he shaved the hole more times than a gynecologist's apprentice. But he will forget to mention how he did get lucky on the last hole and how he somehow avoided donning the 3 putt monkey vest with the last putt of the day.

Andy Pugh was left with the unwanted position of wearing the three putt monkey vest as he walked down the 18th fairway. His fate was in the hands of his playing partners who needed to three putt to take the crown off of him. Once the Supercoach tapped in for a 2 putt quadruple bogie 7 and Stu Coops rolled in a zero putt from off the front edge of the green, Andy's plight was totally in the hands of SOS who had set himself up with a 27 foot birdie putt having landed his tee shot on the front edge of the green. SOS actually left his birdie putt well short and he was staring down a testy 8 footer for par and to avoid a three putt green.

As he struck the ball SOS dropped his head, and tears welled in his eyes, Andy Pugh unzipped the vest and moved forward to hand the crown over to the devastated recipient. The ball was stuck fat, the club bounced on the grass before making contact with the ball which then bobbed and bounced without enough inertia so it appeared to get up to the hole. The ball was also off line and was on a path to miss to the right of the hole. SOS moved forward to tap in for his inevitable bogie while the ball was still struggling up the hill.

Whether it was the wind changing as the storm clouds rolled in from above, a worm coming up from under the ball and pushing it, or if the earth moved from either Andy Pugh's (Toyota Oh What a Feeling) jump for joy or even an aftershock from the tectonic plates shifting below, but somehow Steve's ball managed to change direction by 85 degrees, gather momentum up the hill and finished up teetering over the lip of the cup. Then if that wasn't enough, miraculously, four seconds later the first drops of the forecast showers fell from the sky and landed on the holeward side of the precariously balancing Srixon golf ball and that was enough to knock it in to the hole and the result was a very controversial 2x putt par and SOS avoiding the three Putt monkey vest.

It was an interesting day for SOS over the 18 holes he had his highs and lows. He finished the day with 9 pars, four bogeys and 5 other holes he chooses not to mention. Steve was still square with the card after two holes but then he landed in the greenside bunker on the third hole. SOS' bunker shot smashed into a "please rake the sand" sign at the top of the hazard and deflected back into his own divot. SOS then skinned his next shot across the far end of the green and his ball finished snookered behind a "Carts this way →" sign. He dumped three shots to par on the hole, hit his drive on the fourth hole out of bounds and it appeared to be a sign that his day was becoming unraveled.

When SOS three putted the green on the 15th hole to win the yellow vest the normally mild mannered plumber showed the darker side of his temperament. He took a chunk out of the green as he belted his ball into the bushes and then kicked his golf buggy as he grabbed a sand bucket and pitch repairer to try to fix the trench he had gauged out of the green. So hard had he kicked his golf buggy that he had dislodged or broken the handbrake and while he was reconstructing the putting surface his cart rolled off the downward slope of the green and smashed fully through a signage board. SOS claims it was not an organized revenge attack in response to the signs on the third hole which had impacted his game but it could certainly be interpreted that way.

Congratulations to Steve Powne who was a last minute entry, but also became the third Sunday Leave Pass member to rack up 100 rounds with the club. To celebrate the day he managed to have exactly 100 shots which was a very commendable performance when you think that his best round is 89 his worst round is 123 and his average score is 106.5

Steve was presented with the traditional Sunday Leave Pass 100 games banner to play through on the first hole, see the attached video link, <https://youtu.be/DJnv1anIQDo> although what the video doesn't show is that Steve actually hit the ball straight into the lake so he decided not to count the shot or the associated penalty but instead waited back a few groups before he played his next drive which had a more desirable outcome.

see the attached video link, <https://youtu.be/DJnv1anIQDo> of Steve hitting through his banner.

Steve has been a valuable member of the SLP group and he is almost one of the foundation members, since he started with us in June 2004. In his time with the club he has won 2 monthly titles:

Werribee Park	Oct-11
Warburton	Feb-09

Steve's greatest claim to fame was is his eagle two on the third hole at Dorset.

Extract from Results Blurp September 2007

As all ready mentioned after 2 years 24 days 11 hours and 27 minutes the eagles nest jackpot has finally gone off. Interestingly it didn't go to the hot favorite Alistair as was predicted earlier in the week. Although Dorset was a relatively short course and it did offer several different opportunities to try and make an eagle, despite several others getting the opportunity to try and make an Eagle Steve Powne was the only one golfer was good enough to do it.

What made Steve's achievement all the more exciting was that although he scored an eagle on the third hole, he had also previously missed a very easy eagle putt on the par 5, 1st hole. After knocking his second shot on to middle of the 1st the green, Steve was already asking how much he would be able to sell the 30 golf balls to Matt MacIssac for. Unfortunately Steve, pumped up with Adrenalin charged his putt 6 meters past the hole and then missed the birdie putt on the way back.

I think when it came to getting the eagle on the third hole it may have been the thought of facing the humiliation in the car park for missing an easy putt for eagle on the first hole, that inspired Steve to have another try at winning the illusive Eagle's prize nest. If you are wondering how Steve's eagle came about this is how it all happened as far as we can remember.

While the rest of his playing group tightened there knuckles and wiped the sweat off their brows as they tried to take the risk and drive across the large expanse of water in an attempt to drive the green on the Par 4, third hole. Steve casually took his trusty 5 wood and aimed for the safety shot down the fairway. Unperturbed by the extra 60 meter shot that he was faced with compared to his playing partners Fitzy and Burnsie who were only a matter of meters from the green, Steve went on to punch his hybrid club under the tree's around the edge of a bunker straight toward the hole. His ball softly tapped the bottom of the flagpole then jumped into the air before coming to rest at the bottom of the cup for an eagle 2. Incredibly Steve had 24 stableford points on the first nine holes, which is a brilliant effort and he was unlucky not to win the whole days event.

Steve has also managed to rack other achievements including the Ambrose Beer & Berocca title on the golf trip a couple of times, the physical wreck award on the golf trip on numerous occasions and then for his golfing prowess he has won. 29x Nearest to pins, 1x longest drive title, most improved in 2008, Eclectic Stableford in 2010, Skins Champion in 2013, and wood and spoon in 2013.

A top 4 finish was a fitting reward for the little Blue Smurf in his 100th round. The other players who featured at the top of the leader board were Newell who hit 102 Nett 66 who was delighted to get the title which at one point in his golfing career looked to be an impossible concept. Newell was absolutely shattered when he was runner up to Adam Cooper at Dorset, so his victory will keep him excited for the next 5 or 6 months.

Mick Harper left plenty of shots out on the golf course, he opened the day with a triple bogey but quickly recovered to shoot the days low round (80) Nett 70 and he claimed 2 place and moved to the top of the points championship leaderboard. Mick has been the bridesmaid 3 years in a row and is hoping to go one better this year and take out the 2015 points championship crown.

Colin Ewart put together a very tidy performance and finished with his best ever ranking of 3rd spot. Steve Powne finished in 4th spot beating Andrew, Brendan, Glen and Tony MacIsaac who all finished equally on Nett 76.

PLEASE NOTE: This year the monthly winner has the option of exchanging the number of balls owed to Raffle tickets for the end of year prize draw.

Thanks to Brendan Seagrave who has been appointed as the official Sunday Leave Pass fine marshal. Brendan will be collecting all of the fines from 3 putt monkeys at the end of each round plus he will also be doing a collection from all others who have had fine worthy offences including a four putt, an air-swing and the compulsory $5 contribution from guys who fail to hit past the ladies tees.

Over the past few years it has been noticed that the same guys kick some $$$ into the fine jar each month to ensure that we have plenty of money for our BBQ and drinking money for the golf trip while there are quite a few others who shall remain nameless who always squib on their obligations to pay their fines. We have nominated Brendan as the Fine Jar Marshall to ensure that everyone pays their fair share.

REMINDER HOW 3 PUTT MONKEY GAME WORKS

*As part of the putting competition this year, as a brainchild suggestion from Paul Blizzard we have introduced the Three Putt Monkey game. At the start of each round every group will be given a flouro yellow 3 Putt Monkey vest and whenever a person has a 3 putt or worse that player must put on the 3 Putt Monkey Vest and wear it until another player in the group has a 3 putt or more. The player wearing the 3 putt Monkey vest at the completion of the 18th hole will be required to chip in an additional $2 into the fine jar. If multiple players have a 3 putt or worse the player who was last into the hole wins the vest irrespective of whether the other player before them had a 3 putt, four putt or even a seven putt. The furthest player from the hole should always putt first on the green and that player is deemed as in control and therefore has the option of marking their ball if they miss the putt or putting out. If they chose to putt out and then the following person three putts then the last person to putt out gets the vest.

After taking to the masses last month the handicapper has been a lot more conservative in his approach. Congratulations to Lee MacIsaac who gets a starting handicap of 27.3.

Colin, Supercoach, Mick Harper, Tony Mac and Newell all received a little trim to their handicaps after posting some credible scores whereas the majority of the rest of the field were given a little bit extra for the colder months to follow. Andrew Clarke, Dale, Douggo, Gerard, SOS and Rick will keep the same handicap going into the Beacon Hills round.

A word from our sponsors

*Once again we welcome DRUMMOND GOLF back as our major sponsors to the social club again this year.

Special Thanks to Dale Robinson who is the longest serving sponsor for the Sunday Leave Pass Social Club. Dale runs a printing business and is offering a high quality printing service. He will gladly do a good deal for any Sunday Leave Pass members wanting to order business cards, fliers or any other printed material. To find out more information about what he can do for you he can be contacted on 0438147788.

Remember that any printing job ordered through DNR print via the social club, Dale will donate 5% of the proceeds directly back to social club which offers us the opportunity to provide better prizes for everyone and it is good to keep your business opportunities within the network if it is possible. Wood Tech, my previous company Hudson Bond and even the Super-coach (believe it or not) have actually used Dale's business and everyone that had done so speaks very highly of the service and work that he produces.

Yarra Ranges Wine Regions

Sponsored by

For those who were not aware of the "hole in one prize", any player who scores a hole in one or an Albatross during a Sunday Leave Pass event will win a complimentary Chauffer Driven Winery Tour for 2x people through the Yarra Valley, courtesy of Evergreen Winery Tours. So start aiming at the hole we want to give it away this year there was a few close calls over the years but we are still yet to achieve the perfect shot despite more than 12000 attempts since 2004.

(In 1999, Golf Digest reported, "One insurance company puts a PGA Tour pro's chances at 1 in 3,756 and an amateur's at 1 in 12,750.")
The Golf Digest study even breaking the odds down by quality of play:

- Professional Tour player making an ace: 3,000 to 1
- Low-handicapper making an ace: 5,000 to 1
- Average player making an ace: 12,000 to 1

Based on this information we are due any time so make sure you turn up to play as it may just be you that claims the ultimate prize.
