Devils Bend Golf Course Results April

Unfortunately the Sunday Leave Pass website is still down so the results have to be emailed to you, hopefully those few people who bother to read the results can read them in the format that it comes in.

Sunday was a momentous occasion for several reasons, firstly we experienced something we never thought would happen, we actually completed a round of golf at Devils Bend without a drop of rain, and the other modern miracle was the fact that the Supercoach committed to marriage. This was a miracle not only for the fact that he found someone who he could love more than he loves himself, but it also shocked a lot of people to hear that any woman would actually want to be his wife. Congratulations to the lovely couple we wish you a bright and prosperous future, although the SUNDAY LEAVE PASS executive committee has voted unanimously that there is a $10 fine owing for arranging your wedding day on a scheduled Sunday Leave Pass Golf Weekend. Poor Stu Coops was only able to get 13 holes of golf in before he had to front up to the wedding, so there was nearly a flash flood run across the Devils Bend Course despite the lovely weather, because of the amount of tears coming from Stu's eyes as he drove out of the car park with a DNF on his scorecard.

It was a great wedding and the free grog nearly made up for the shortened round of golf, and as you can see by the photo the bride and groom were looking magnificent.

It was nice to see Devils Bend with out the stormy weather, Steve Powne who has played at the golf course for the last 4x years commented on how impressed he was with the layout he said it is the first time he has been able to see it properly, since previously his head has been permanently tucked up under an umbrella and the grass has been under water. Steve relished in the sunny conditions, he shot a very solid Nett 70 and finished in 4th position.

Slinky carried on with his good form from Yarrambat and this time he didn't choke on the last hole. Slinky's finished in 3rd place with a 69 Nett, including a powerful wind up and recoil on the 15th hole which resulted in him hitting the longest drive for the day.

It was a matter of sharing the good times, Phil Plane joined John Mea for a 69 on Sunday, Phil just got up on Slinky by scoring 4 stableford points on the 18th hole to take home the 14 championship points.

It seems the minor places are the all important ones these days, because the first place position is being dominated Tiger Woods style by Dale Robinson. Even the intimidation of being partnered up with the low scoring, big hitting Mick Harper did nothing to dampen his spirits. In fact Dale gave Mick a lesson in how to play the game of golf, despite having a handicap of 24 compared to Micks 10, Dale beat him by 8 shots off the stick. Dale was the only player to break 90, and his 85 (Nett 61) was his career lowest score including 7 pars. A drug test may be required soon, Dale has won 3 out 4 months this year and he is scoring at more than 10 shots better than his career average. Now that footy season is in full swing all we can hope is that family commitments pull him away from the competition for a few months, so the rest of us get a chance to score some points.

Congratulations to Dale who continues to dominate the top of the leaderboard, he has had 3 wins from his last 4 starts and has collected 58 out of possible 60 points on offer so far this year. The Challenge is on to see if he can surpass the illusive 3 victories in a row which has only ever been achieved once by Daniel DeMarinis in 2008.
