SUNDAY LEAVE PASS 2007

Note: We have capped the Eagles nest at 30 balls until we build up a back up stockpile of 10 balls then it will start jackpotting again.

Devils Bend Results

It was a cold start to the day and it took a few hours for the fingers and toes to thaw out. The only person not to feel the cold was Jamie who was still pickled to the eyeballs after a huge bucks night was immune to any sense of feeling at all. After spending the night out in his back yard curled up in the fetal position he was just happy to be still functioning let alone swinging the golf club although he did post a decent score at the end of the day.

It was nice to see a decent sized field especially since it is the middle of winter. We had 20 players and unfortunately one no show.

Before we get to the results there was a few performances that deserve a noteworthy mention.

Congratulations to Damijan and Daniel have recently been nominated for the Nobel Arborist Prize award for their continued research into the effects of striking a golf ball into a tree and the longterm affect of impact of public golf courses on vegetation sustainability.

Darren Higgs has completed his first ever round without getting angry. Everything clicked for our club championship leader, he extended his almost unassailable lead with a fine 84 of the stick (Nett 66) and did so with out swearing, staring down a misdirected putt or even throwing a little tantrum. Maybe he'll get a little steamed up when he realizes that he is responsible for paying the $35 green fees for Wayne who failed to show up on the day.

Our newest recruit Chris Sfiligoj put in a stella performance, he improved by 22 shots from last months round. Despite failing to make it past the ladies tees on a few occasions, he still finished in 6th place with a Callaway handicap of 19 as opposed to the 39 shots he was given last month. Concerns have been raised as to whether he is trying to cheat the handicapping system as has been done on previous occasions by his dodgy brother Fil, but it was a good round nonetheless.

Roger Powne has started a late career change apparently he is doing a traineeship as a Gynecologists apprentice. When asked if he was enjoying the new profession he said, "it's OK but it can be a bit frustrating just like my putting." What do you mean like your putting he was asked?" to which he replied "You spend the whole day shaving the hole and grazing the lips but never get the satisfaction of dropping one in."

Speaking of new roles. Peter Bennett has been appointed as the club bartender. A very big thanks to Peter for manning the bar for us, with Peter collecting the cash the beer money has actually reconciled correctly for the first time ever. It is good to see Peter is good for something on Sundays. Peter is now ranked No #1 contender for least improved for 2007, in fact his form has been so bad that the handicapper system has been automated to issue him with an extra 0.1 each month no matter what he scores. Also an honorable mention must go to PB for throwing a club in disgust although witnesses claim that he wasn't even very good at that either.

Congratulations to Luke Dumbrell scored a birdie 2 on the par 3, 3rd hole. I must admit that I did I check the cards a couple of times just to check that the name was in fact correct. After all a 2 and a 13 on the same scorecard does look a little ridiculous. Even the computer was a bit surprised by the event, so much so that when the scores were entered into the spreadsheet this is what happened.

Overall it was a very good day, especially for Darren who played a faultless round. He picked up the 10 points with a convincing victory but it was at the expense of his much disputed handicap which has been slashed by more than a whole stroke.

Gerard scored the same gross score 84 but a less generous handicap meant that he was only able to finish in 2nd place.

Adam Cooper has continued his good form, he has played some excellent golf over the last few months, although a regular pattern has emerged where sudden temporary lapses of concentration (thinking about his American mail order bride) usually result in one or two disastrous holes which on numerous occasions have cost him a certain first place finish. Adam has only played 4 rounds for the year and is sitting in 2nd place on the championship points table. He averages a very respectable 7 points per round but still don't rule him out for beer wench award, he's just as likely to throw in the towel and play poorly on the golf trip just for the opportunity to wear the dress again.

Positions 4 to 8 were all determined using the countback system, Steve Powne, Jamie Brunton, Chris Sfiligoj and Jeremy Cliff all scored a Nett 76. The final standings at Devils Bend were as follows:

Just a reminder that for every round that you play you are awarded a raffle ticket to go towards the end of year raffle, plus you can win extra tickets by winning them through the skins competition.

As always "SKINS" were distributed to those players good enough to win a hole outright. If more than 1 player got the lowest score on a hole it is Jackpotted until an outright winner occurs.

Well done to Luke Dumbrell who scored a big nine hole Jackpot with a par 4 for 4 stableford points. He had a very good round and only 2 shocking holes kept him from finishing in 1st place so he deserved his skins win.

Skins won at Devils Bend were as follows:

1	Jackpot
2	Greg Parsons
3	Luke Dumbrell
4	Jeremy Cliff
5	Jackpot
6	Jackpot
7	Ron Parsons
8	Jackpot
9	Jackpot

12	Jackpot
13	Jackpot
14	Jackpot
15	Luke Dumbrell
16	Adam Cooper
17	Jackpot
18	Daniel De Marinis

In Summary skins were won by:

Luke Dumbrell x9

Ron Parsons x3

Greg Parsons x2

Daniel De Marinis x2

Jeremy Cliff x1

Adam Cooper x1

Gerard MacIssac x9

Handicaps

The only significant changes this month were Darren Higgs who lost 1.1 strokes and Gerard MacIssac who played to par and therefore stayed on the same handicap. Everyone else gets an extra 0.1

For those that weren't there Sunday the golf shirts have been finished and they have come out looking great. Whether they will improve our golf is yet to be proven but atleast we'll all look good out there together. If you haven't received your shirt yet, you can get it off Jamie at any time. There are a few guys still who haven't paid for their shirts $30-00 yet either so please do so ASAP, (which means pay today or this week at the latest.)

To pay all you need to do is EFT the money into Jamies account and make sure you put in a narration so that he knows where the money is coming from.

Eg Steve P Shirt or Burnsie Golf or Fitzy Toc

If you need the account details still use the link to ask Jamie to send it to you.

A special thanks to the Golf Clearance Outlet who supplied the shirts not only did they do a great job in designing and emroidering the shirts for us but they and have also offered a sponsorship deal to the club aswell. They have donated $$$$$ towards the end of the year prizes, discounted the cost of the shirts to keep the costs down for us, and the Golf Clearance Outlet will be giving us access to their website for social club information and may even host a Sponsors day annually as part of their continuing support. Obviously, we will be buying all the end of year and raffle prizes through them as part of our commitment to them. The Golf Clearance Outlet has an incredible supply of golf equipment and also can supply all clothing at fantastic prices. As part of our support for them we will be promoting deals and offers that the Golf Clearance Outlet have available and on many occasions our club members will receive a further 10% discount off most items just by mentioning the Sunday Leave Pass Social Club.

So if you were considering buying anything to do with golf it would be in your best interest to buy it via the Golf Clearance Outlet. Sam has even said that if there is something in particular that you wanted and he doesn't have it in store he has the buying capacity to order it in for you and will still offer it at a better price than the bigger golf outlets would do for you.

TRY them out and see for yourself.

While we are doing commercials, here's one for Rick and Adam.

That's right, folks you can buy a Sunday Leave Pass golf shirt to wear today and pay no deposit and no interest repayments for as little as just $1-00 per day for 30 days.

Offer is subject to normal lending criteria

Next month we are playing at Warburton at 9-00am on 22nd July.

Please confirm your attendance by replying to this email using the hyperlinks provided.

Please aim to be there at the course at least 15 minutes before hit off this will allow us time to get everybody organized and to workout the groups for the day. For information on how to get to the course you can log onto their website using the link below or look it up in the Melways.

The club will be putting on a BBQ at Warburton after the round. All of the food will be supplied by the Social Club kitty free of charge and beers will be available at the normal price $2-00 each.

Please plan to stay around afterwards for a bite to eat, a yarn and a beer or 6. It's a great afternoon.

If you haven't already it's definitely worth working out a car pool with a few blokes rather than make the trip alone and if you want to make a weekend of it Burnsie has offered his missus's place on Saturday night to sleep over and have a few loud ones. The only problem is that he hasn't told Kelly yet that and she's not aware that she could be invaded next month by 24 blokes wearing bright blue and white golf shirts.

If you haven't already, please make the effort to organize to pay in advance for each round. You can do an EFT direct transfer into Jamie's bank account. To get the details please send him an email using the link above and he will give you all of the banking details. Important Note Please make sure that you make a notation when you make the deposit identifying who paid the money into the account and for what for. This makes it a lot quicker and easier on the day.

Please make sure that you let us know if you are a last minute cancellation or running late. If you don't turn up and we are expecting you then it will affect the groupings for the day. Please call Jamie or Stu Coops or anybody else from the club to get us a message to us as early as you can.

Please remember that if you are a confirmed booking and you don't turn up then you are still charged the cost for the round or responsible for finding a substitute player to replace you.
