$160.15

Speaking of fines, Once again this year we are going to be enforcing a penalty for late payment of golf fees. The payment for each month is due no later than the Thursday the week final numbers are due. There is no excuse for late payment since everyone receives at least a minimum of two reminder emails and a text message prior to the due date. Players who fail to meet the deadline will be charged a late payment levy of $5-00 on top of the original golf fee's. Anyone who finds it too difficult to make the EFT transfer on time is welcome to make a larger transfer and keep some money in credit for when they fail to make the payments on time.

GOLF TRIP 2015

Please Note: We have booked the golf trip this year and we will be returning to Echuca, Rich River Golf course. The date of the golf trip will be Friday 4th to Sunday 6th DECEMBER 2015. The Cost is approximately $330.00. We have booked for 27 players (3 people per room) so please book it into your calendar and let me know if you are a definite attendee by Email stodaydream@gmail.com or the links here. YES I want to take part in the golf trip this year No I will not be going to Rich River

Potentially we may reach maximum numbers for the golf trip this year. If you are a definite starter let me know ASAP as bed allocations are done as first come first served and if we can't book any extra rooms it is just too bad for those who will miss out.

2015 HERALD SUN AFL SUPERCOACH FANTASY FOOTY COMPETITION

Here's your chance to choose where you play next year!

Please fill out the survey using the following link

This is the link for your survey:

<http://survs.com/survey/3i5x0y88ad>

Tell us which golf courses you think should be on the Sunday Leave Pass fixture next year. This is your opportunity to choose the courses that you prefer to play on. Please tick as many courses as you like or add your own suggestions in the space provided. We welcome all of your comments and suggestions. The courses have been categorised into price brackets to help you make a better informed decision.

We will be booking the Golf courses for the 2016 Fixture soon. So if you want to have an input on where you play next year here is your chance to have your opinion considered.

You can use the link provided <http://survs.com/survey/3i5x0y88ad> although an individual invitation has also been sent to your email address. The Survey will be closed at the end of the month so please get your responses in ASAP. You can vote for as many courses as you like. The ones with the most votes will go on to next year's fixture.

Thanks to the 28 guys who have voted already if you haven't voted please do so.

Dorset Golf Course Results March

It's incredible to think that in January a score of Nett 74 and you would have been crowned the monthly champion and then suddenly in March the same score sees you outside the top 15. Congratulations to all of our golfers who put on a fine display of golfing prowess on Sunday at Dorset. Although we didn't score anywhere near the same amount of birdies as last month's round at Warburton (Brendan Waters didn't turn up), consistency was the key to the good scores and there was very few of the soul destroying major blow out holes that is often the case on the majority of our score cards.

Congratulations to all of the guys who had monumental rounds this month and broke the illusive 100 barrier. Greg Breasley, David Burns, Ron Parsons, John Murphy and even (believe it or not) Newell Richards shot sub 100 scores, while Tony MacIsaac, Geoff Cooper, Rick Turcinovic and even the beer wench Colin Ewart all came very close to breaking the century too.

Round of the day has to go to Adam Cooper who off a 26 handicap managed to shoot a career best round of 82 off the stick including a blistering score of 36 on the front nine. Adam has been in retirement for several years with his golfing opportunities succumbing to the challenges and responsibilities imposed by family life. His return to the game in 2015 has certainly been dramatic as his 2 rounds have been so far ahead of his career average scores. Adam averages 104.8 strokes per round according to his career stats so when he shot 95 at Warburton there were a few questions raised. Needless to say a full inquiry has been launched to see if he has recruited the services of Dr Steven Dank or if he is taking any performance enhancing substances after his Dorset performance.

If it is not the drugs helping him perhaps Adams run of good scores may be resultant to his impartialness to bring out the leather wedge when confronted with a difficult lie. I don't want to cast any dispersions against Adams success however it should be noted that soon after his round started to unravel when he had his first double bogie on the 13th hole a leather shoe mysteriously fell out of the back of his golf bag. Adam claims the shoe was not his, but I do recall him wearing a pair of brown leather shoes with silver sequin press studs to his Debutante Ball back in 1996. So it was definitely a strange coincidence that the same style of shoe was found just alongside the row of trees and bushes that Adams ball had disappeared into but miraculously landed in a clear patch of grass with an unimpeded swing path and a clear line of sight to the green. Perhaps some leather wedge nominations may need pointed in Adam's direction.

Greg Breasley would have needed more than a pair of brown leather shoes (perhaps some flippers and snorkel) to help him out of the predicament he ended up on off the tee on the 12th hole. Despite starting the day with an eleven on the first hole Greg had a very good round going. As he stood on the tee on the 12th Greg looked forward towards the large mass of duck weeds growing around the water hazard. “I hate this hole last time I played here I hit 3 balls in a row into the bloody water.” Stu tried to coach him into a positive attitude and attempted to put him in a good frame of mind as he whispered into his ear, “visualize Greg imagine your ball flying over the water and not into the hazard that you can see directly in front of you, concentrate on seeing your ball fly down the middle of the fairway.”

Like always Greg couldn't be told a thing. He didn't listen to the advice, he duffed his drive into the middle of the pond, knocked his next ball into the bushes and walked off the green at the other end with a disappointing score of nine etched into his scorecard.

Greg was quick to recover however, he took a bite of the angry pills and blamed Stu for talking him into hitting the ball in the dam. Then as he stood on the thirteenth tee he imagined his ball was Stu's head and smashed a 260 meter drive over the dog leg and into the middle of the fairway. He then smashed his three wood onto the side of the green to set himself up for a 5 meter eagle putt. Unfortunately the eagles nest remained unclaimed as his putt which was dead on line but fell only a couple of feet short. Greg made the easy tap in Birdie four and went on to finish the day with a noteworthy sub-par round, which was a brilliant effort especially considering he racked up an 11 and a 9 along the way.

Stu Coops had an eagle putt on the Par 4 10th hole, but he ended up walking off the green wearing the dreaded 3 putt monkey vest and a 4 with 3 putts on the scorecard. Big Mick spent most of the day in flouro yellow. The big fella knocked his ball close to the pin on the 8th hole and was in the ideal position to win NTP with just a few groups to follow. Unfortunately for Mick he got beaten for NTP by the last player of the day to hit into the green and to rub salt into the wound he also had to don the monkey vest and scribble a 5 with 4putts onto the score card and also pay a $2 fine for his indiscretion.

It wasn't until the 16th hole that Mick was able to handover the Three Putt monkey vest to Glenn Douglas who three putted the 16th green. Glenn only managed to get one arm into the sleeve of the flouro yellow fashion item before Rick Turcinovic followed suit with a three putt straight after him. Rick then wore the vest all of the home to the 18th hole for the third month in succession.

REMINDER HOW 3 PUTT MONKEY GAME WORKS

*As part of the putting competition this year, as a brainchild suggestion from Paul Blizzard we have introduced the Three Putt Monkey game. At the start of each round every group will be given a flouro yellow 3 Putt Monkey vest and whenever a person has a 3 putt or worse that player must put on the 3 Putt Monkey Vest and wear it until another player in the group has a 3 putt or more. The player wearing the 3 putt Monkey vest at the completion of the 18th hole will be required to chip in an additional $2 into the fine jar. If multiple players have a 3 putt or worse the player who was last into the hole wins the vest irrespective of whether the other player before them had a 3 putt, four putt or even a seven putt. The furthest player from the hole should always putt first on the green and that player is deemed as in control and therefore has the option of marking their ball if they miss the putt or putting out. If they chose to putt out and then the following person three putts then the last person to putt out gets the vest.

It was a day of close calls, Greg Breasley came close to an eagle, Nigel Stone nearly chipped in for an eagle 2 and big Mick and SOS came close to beating Tony Grasso in the longest drive competition but their balls were just off the fairway and in the rough.

Brendan MacIsaac came close to killing his brother Tony with his second shot of the day. Brendan hit a shank which veered out towards Tony who had to lean back to evade it like it was a Brett Lee bouncer. Rick Turcinovic had a close call when he smashed a ball which just missed new comer Leigh MacIsaac who was forced to back up against a tree to avoid being struck by the wayward ball.

Never one to be out done, Burnsie was able to keep his title as the most deadly golfer when he also had a near miss. Unlike the other guys Burnsie nearly killed a total stranger who was innocently standing on the 11th tee having a few practice swings while Burnsie played up the 17th hole. A loud call of fore alerted the stranger to the impending danger and he was just lucky enough to dive for cover as the ball smashed into the garden bed retaining wall just a few inches beside him.

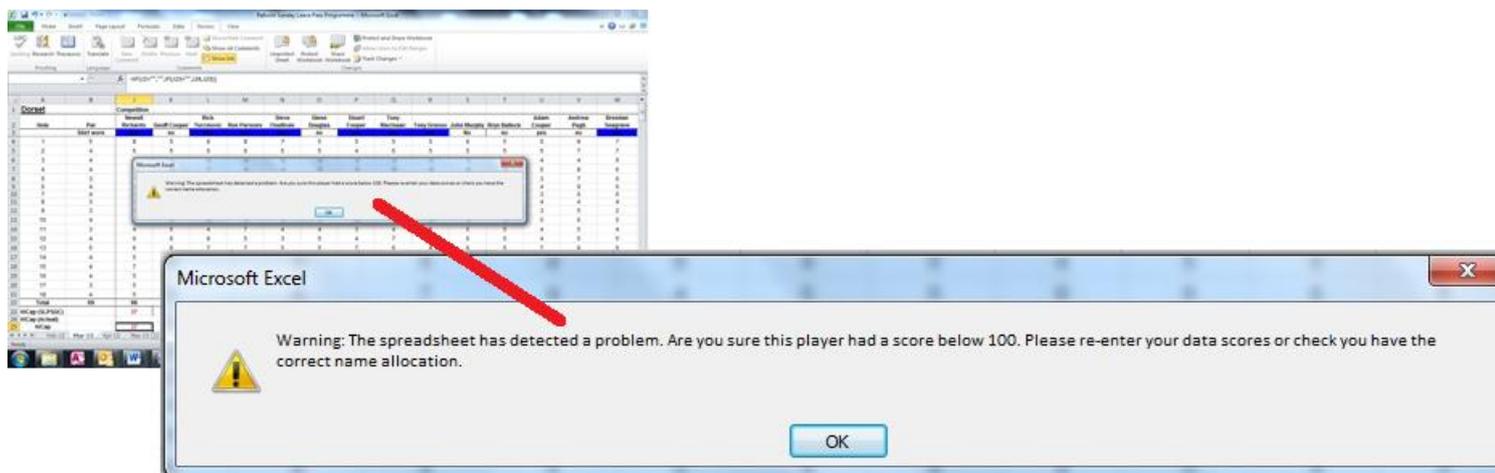

With no remorse whatsoever Burnsie sidled up to the shaken stranger said "Sorry Buddy did you happen to see where my ball went?" He then chipped his ball back towards the green tapped in for an easy bogie and then said to his playing partners. "You know the best thing about nearly hitting someone with your golf ball is that they can always tell you exactly where it landed."

Mick Harper nearly killed himself and three others when he planted his fat butt on the 4 inch pine sleeper fence. There is debate whether it was the excess weight the 7foot 150kg giant of a man was carrying from downing 6 bourbons and 4 beers that caused the fence to break or whether it was the extra weight from Newells ever expanding big head after he posted his best ever score. Whatever it was the club will be looking for volunteers as we will be running a working bee at Dorset next week to pay for and replace the damaged fence posts in the Dorset Golf Course car park.

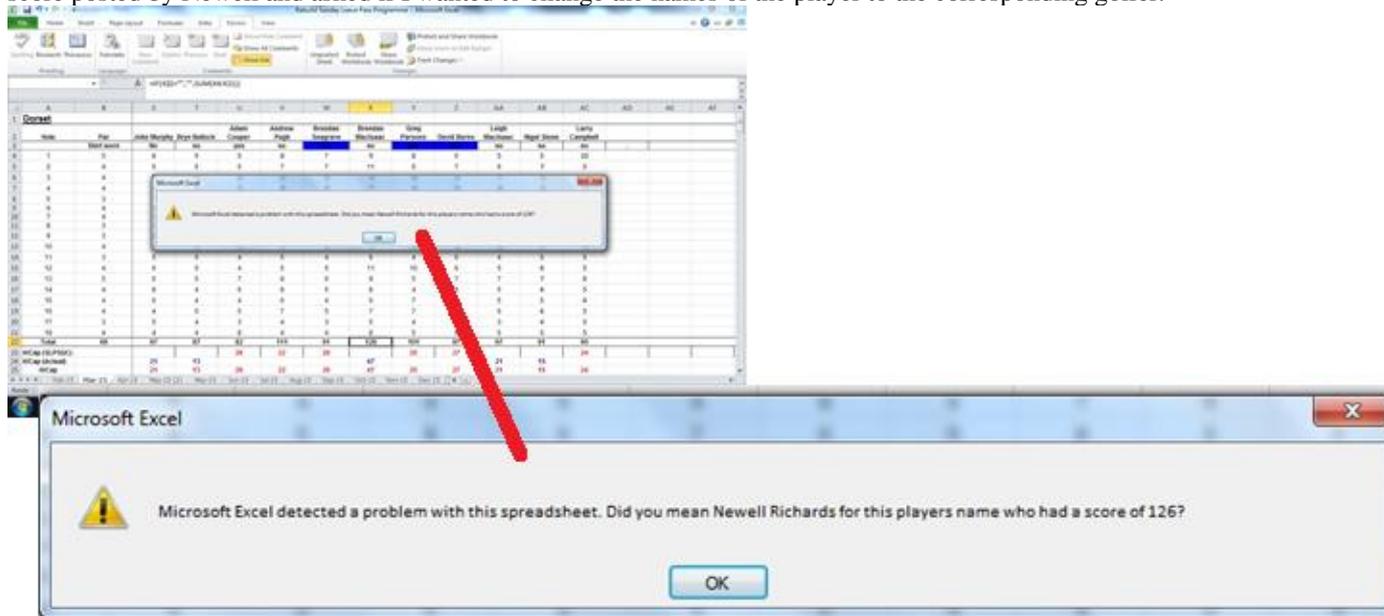

It is more likely the extra weight that caused the guys to collapse the fence was from Newells big head. After shooting 98 and then sucking back on a few celebratory frothies he was so confident and self assured that on the way home he answered a phone call from his mother in law by saying "Hi Yvonne sorry I cant help you with your computer problems at the moment, I just shot 98 and I am too pissed to be interested in listening to, or caring what you are saying." By the time he fell out of the car and staggered into the front door I think Sarah his wife may have been a bit pissed herself in the attitudinal sense, especially since she had mowed the lawns, fixed the leaking shower, cleaned the guttering and washed the family cars while Newell was off golfing and drinking with his mates and then to make it worse insulting her mother. Its little wonder he knocked on my door at 630pm and asked him he could join my family for dinner.

It could be said it was the perfect week for Newell, he actually billed a client for three hours of contact, therefore constituting that he had actually worked for the week so he then played Golf on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. To cap it all off he finished the week with a sub 100 round career best score of 98 at Dorset.

Newell actually finished the day in second place behind Adam Cooper. His performance was so much of a surprise to all concerned that even the computer scoring program questioned the validity of his results. After entering Newell's scores into the computer a caution notice error popped up in excel prompting me to check for data entry errors. The Prompt read. "Are you sure this score is less than 100. Please re-enter the correct scores or check the name of the golfer who has played"

Interestingly the computer identified a Newell like score from the data entered into the spreadsheet for another player and made the suggestion that Brendan MacIsaacs figures with two scores of eleven, two x nines and an eight it would more likely be a score posted by Newell and asked if I wanted to change the names of the player to the corresponding golfer.

Congratulations to Tony Grasso who succeeded in out driving the power hitters, Big Mick, Gerard, SOS and Glen Douglas to win this month's longest drive title. Tony even out muscled Grumpy despite his secret weapon, his new Titleist 915 Driver.

What people didn't know was that Tony also came armed with a secret weapon of his own. Tony recently invested in some B- grade Srixon Distance golf balls which have proved at 0.77 cents per ball, they are a much better investment than the $500 Grumpy spent on his driver.

The question is whether the technological advancement of TG's golf balls is legal given that they come with the unfair advantage of extra flight characteristics, namely the ball has a Bee which is stuck to the ball and so as it flaps it wings the ball travels higher and longer, hence giving Tony an unfair advantage and why he was able to make a convincing longest drive contribution and therefor win his first long drive title for 2015.

Although Tony was delighted with his B- Grade golf balls, he was also as proud as punch to be presented with one of the A- grade Sunday Leave Pass Srixon Golf balls as his prize for the longest drive. However he was a little affronted when he copped the perfect backhanded one liner from Grumpy who said, as Tony was announced the victor of the longest drive prize "Ah Tony no wonder you are still here, you won a golf ball, I was wondering why you hadn't gone home yet."

It was great to see so many guys including Tony stay around for a beer after the golf round. We pride our self on being a social club and not a golf club so that is why it is so important to get involved in the comradery and mate-ship which is built from standing around an esky with a cold beer in hand telling stories about how good you were or were not.

Congratulations to Adam Cooper who posted an unbelievable score of Nett 56. The pressure is on for him to continue his run of form and back it up for a third month in succession at Devils Bend or perhaps he might put the golf sticks back up on mothballs while he is at the top of his game.

Twelve months ago no one would ever have dreamed of seeing Highways name in the top 15 let alone in the top 10. But miracles do happen and the hard work has paid off. Newell has now had three top 10 finishes and this month with a Nett 61 he finished in 2nd place. On the same course last year he shot 129 Nett 92 and finished in last spot and even then he was still boasting about playing his best ever round of golf.

Colin Ewart has also turned his game around, after finishing last at Warburton he was required to wear the beer wench pink vest for the entire Dorset round, he certainly was well clear of a repeat performance especially since he shot 101 Nett 64 and finished in third spot. Gerard MacIsaac carded the best gross score for Sundays round,, he hit a very impressive 76 off the stick and finished with 12 championship points for his 4th place ranking. Ron Parsons continues to dominate the field and once again finished inside the top five and has extended his lead on the championship points leaderboard.

Reminder
The ball must be clearly on the CUT surface of the green or fairway to win NTP or longest drive. If it is not on the fairway it doesn't count.

Each player won 1 ball each.

Golf Balls are owed to the following people:

Glenn Douglas x3 Winner at Waterford Valley
Adam Cooper x3 Winner at Dorset

PLEASE NOTE: This year the monthly winner has the option of exchanging the number of balls owed to Raffle tickets for the end of year prize draw.

Just a reminder that for every round you play you are awarded a raffle ticket to go towards the end of year raffle, then extra tickets are issued if you wear the official club shirt plus extra tickets can also be won by winning a hole in the monthly skins competition.

“SKINS” were distributed to those players good enough to win a hole outright. If more than 1 player got the lowest score on a hole it is Jackpotted until an outright winner occurs.

The handicapper has sharpened the pencil this month and he has taken severely to the Sunday Leave Pass Social Club as a group. More than half of the field from Sunday's round have been marked in green meaning they have lost shots this month. A total of 12.1 shots has actually been deducted from our members handicaps. The players most brutally savaged were Andrew Pugh who was converted across to the slope handicap scoring system, (he moved from 28 to 22) Adam Cooper, Newell Richards, Ron Parsons, Rick Turcinovic and Stuart Cooper.

Dale, Greg Parsons and Tony Grasso were the only people to be given any shots back. We have a run of more difficult courses and wet cold weather coming up so it will be interesting to see how players deal with the changing conditions.

A word from our sponsors

*Once again we welcome DRUMMOND GOLF back as our major sponsors to the social club again this year.

Special Thanks to Dale Robinson who is the longest serving sponsor for the Sunday Leave Pass Social Club. Dale runs a printing business and is offering a high quality printing service. He will gladly do a good deal for any Sunday Leave Pass members wanting to order business cards, fliers or any other printed material. To find out more information about what he can do for you he can be contacted on 0438147788.

Remember that any printing job ordered through DNR print via the social club, Dale will donate 5% of the proceeds directly back to social club which offers us the opportunity to provide better prizes for everyone and it is good to keep your business opportunities within the network if it is possible. Wood Tech, my previous company Hudson Bond and even the Super-coach (believe it or not) have actually used Dale's business and everyone that had done so speaks very highly of the service and work that he produces.

Yarra Ranges Wine Regions

Sponsored by

For those who were not aware of the "hole in one prize", any player who scores a hole in one or an Albatross during a Sunday Leave Pass event will win a complimentary Chauffer Driven Winery Tour for 2x people through the Yarra Valley, courtesy of Evergreen Winery Tours. So start aiming at the hole we want to give it away this year there was a few close calls over the years but we are still yet to achieve the perfect shot despite more than 12000 attempts since 2004.

(In 1999, Golf Digest reported, "One insurance company puts a PGA Tour pro's chances at 1 in 3,756 and an amateur's at 1 in 12,750.")
The Golf Digest study even breaking the odds down by quality of play:

- Professional Tour player making an ace: 3,000 to 1
- Low-handicapper making an ace: 5,000 to 1
- Average player making an ace: 12,000 to 1

Based on this information we are due any time so make sure you turn up to play as it may just be you that claims the ultimate prize.
