SUNDAY LEAVE PASS 2007

Glen Waverley Golf Course Results March

Important Note:

It is highly likely that this month we will have a large attendance, please confirm your availability immediately since we only have 28 places booked, if we end up with more than 28 players then there is no guarantee's of spots, therefore positions will be given on first come first served basis. So please reply today!! You can respond to this email using the links provided or you can confirm your spot on the Sunday leave pass website!

This months results can also be viewed on

<http://sundayleavepass.boodi.com/>

Although our website is up and running we have had to temporarily remove the spreadsheet information, so unfortunately the player stats, current handicap and monthly results competition tables can not be viewed at present.

If you haven't already logged into the website please have a browse, and let us now what you think. The website has been designed so that you can check out the years fixture, directions on how to get to the golf courses, weather forecasts, and most importantly you can do internet banking from the one site which should make it easier for everyone.

There is a section to update your details where you can put all of your contact numbers and also promote your own business or services. Please check that all of the information is correct and if it is not updated please make the relevant changes.

Hopefully you will find the website a useful tool and with any luck you should no longer need to ring up to ask when we are playing next, or how to get there since all of the information is available with a touch a button on the Sunday Leave Pass website.

Feel free to browse but there will be lots of changes and fault fixing to be done over the next few months until we get it fully operational. Please be patient as this is not our area of expertise. Any suggestions, feedback or comments are most welcome.

Glen Waverley Results

As the players began to pull into the car park in the early hours of Sunday morning Chris Sfiligoj unveiled his secret weapon, a brand new set of Srixon Golf Clubs that he had just bought from the Golf Clearance Outlet. Chris was full of praise about Sam and the boys from the Golf Clearance Outlet who had looked after him and done him a great deal on his new investment. New Clubs, New putter, Golf bag, golf buggy, golf umbrella, golf balls, tees, glove, ball marker. He looked a million dollars. Chris had purchased basically everything the Golf Clearance Outlet has in stock, it's just a pity that they don't sell new golf swings because despite the shiny new tools Chris' stroke play still looked like a chimpanzee having a seizure and some of his scores reflected it too.

The competition was fierce even before the first group tee'd off. Jeremy Cliff was carefully scrutinizing his playing group to make sure he was going to retain his winning reputation. When handed his playing partners Jeremy read them aloud and said with excitement "Oh that's good I'm playing with Greg Parsons I can flog him." Ron had daggers in his eyes when he heard Jeremy's comments about his son but to his credit Jeremy did flog Greg, in fact he smashed just about everyone in the field finishing in 4th place with a Nett 67. His score may have even better had he been a better driver. His 1 wood was a little wayward for the day and as it happened the only time he managed to hit anything with a drive was when he backed over one of the fence pylons in the car park on his way home after a few beers with the boys on the 19th hole.

Speaking of incidents in the car park after golf, it was a huge shock to see Greg Parsons being picked up by the missus the minute that he walked off the last green. Adam put in an immediate proposal to make this behavior illegal. Being picked up by the ball & chain and being dragged by the ear into the car is a very controversial issue when it comes to the concept of the Sunday Leave Pass. This blatant disregard for the Leave Pass was the subject for much discussion, especially when 4x other blokes were on their phones to the wife at that same moment explaining how the golf was very slow and how they would be late home as there was still another 5x holes to play. We will be in trouble if Vanessa starts talking to the other wives Greg.

I suppose one good thing about being dropped off and picked up by the fun police is that at least you actually make it to the course on time. Lukey Dumbrell doesn't have the problem of the missus telling him what to do and when to do it, but he is the biggest culprit of not showing up for golf or being late. After a few beers and a late finish on Saturday night, Lukey failed turn up again this month. The Jury is still casting their judgment as to whether he actually slept in or if he was just still too pissed to get to the course especially when it was so close to the Police Academy but the phone call at 10.30am for a 9-00am hit off was appreciated just so that we knew you were O.K.

Of all of the people who did manage to turn up, Burnsie more than anyone else was probably wishing that he had actually had stayed in bed especially with his new bride still glowing after a fantastic honeymoon in Fiji. If you didn't know that Burnsie was a plumber then you would swear that he was a lumberjack. Having played in his group I was witness to a level of forest destruction unsurpassed even by the Amazon Jungle forests logging corporation. Every stroke that Burnsie hit was on a collision course with trees, his white golf ball by the end of the round had hit over 147 tree's it was dented and grazed and had changed color from pure white to blood red stained by the sap from damaged vegetation. Burnsie's best shot for the day however never actually hit a tree, it was a skinned chip shot which flew across the green and would have ended up in the tree's had it not ricocheted off Jarrett's golf ball and then slowed down, changed direction and just missed rolling into the hole by a matter of feet.

Jarrett himself had some tricks of his own to play, on the 8th hole he nearly holed a shot from 140 meters out from the green, the ball finished resting on the lip of the cup with only the wind holding it up and stopping it from dropping in. What made his shot even greater was that he had failed to get passed the ladies markers with his drive, and had dribbled 4x shots along the ground before coming up with this one, amazingly he had just said "let's just forget this crappy hole, I just want to get it over & done with and get to the next one as quick as possible." That he certainly did.

As was expected the short and wide-open fairways of Glen Waverley were just what was needed to produce some exceptional golf. The handicapper had his pencil sharpened and ready to use even before the first ball was struck, by the time the last group arrived back at the car park deductions had been made to the handicaps of more than ¼ of the players in the field, with Rick McEvoy was the hit hardest with a 3 shot deduction after a blistering round of 77 (Nett 59). Not a bad effort considering that he was heard whinging about his golf clubs before the start of the round. In his words, "they aren't that good but what do you expect when they are free." With 2x wins from 2x rounds the clubs can't be that bad. Hopefully the new handicap might slow him down a bit. Congratulations on an excellent round. 77 with a triple bogie on the first hole is sensational golf, we need Roger Powne to make a come back to give him some decent competition.

Rumor has it, that Rick was seen taking all of his prize balls for winning from Warburton & Glen Waverley plus his nearest to pin prizes back to the Golf Clearance Outlet claiming that he wanted to swap them for new ones, apparently the reason for changing the balls was that they were scratched after he dropped them in the car park. The boy is always out to save a penny.

Young Matt MacIssac has continued his sensational form, from a possible 30x points he has scored 27 in the first 3 rounds of this year. Considering he is meant to be studying for his VCE this year he seems to be getting plenty of practice on the golf course. Perhaps a drug test or a girlfriend might be needed to bring him back to reality. He shot 4 under par Nett 64 and was the recipient of a major handicap adjustment for the third time in 2008.

Dale, Jeremy and Stu also managed to shoot sub par rounds and they finished in 3rd 4th & 5th position respectively. This left the rest of the guys who posted very good scores wondering what else they could have done to get a better place finish.

With a field of 17 players on a pretty short course it is much harder to have a top 10 finish. The scores were also very tightly grouped. Which meant that we had to have a count back to sort out the place rankings for 2nd & 3rd, 4th & 5th and 7th through 10th place.

When many players finish with the same Nett score the place rankings are determined by the count back system. The count back system formulates a ranking order by calculating the number of Stableford points each player had on the back 9x holes. In the event that still the players had the same score on the back nine then the Stableford points on individual holes are assessed working back for the 18th hole until a leader is found.

Final Results at Glen Waverley were as follows:

Reminder

The ball must be clearly on the CUT surface of the green or fairway to win NTP or longest drive. If it is not on the fairway it doesn't count.

Each player won 1 ball each.

Nearest to the pin prizes were won by:

3rd Hole	Greg Breasley
7th Hole	Stuart Cooper
10th Hole	Darren Higgs
12th Hole	Rick McEvoy
18th Hole	Stuart Cooper
Longest Drive	Myles Petty

It was a surprise to see that Darren Didn't wait in the car park for his prize ball after winning the nearest to pin on the 10th hole, unbelievably he left before he could claim is prize at the presentations, perhaps he thought that his shot had been knocked off by another group so he didn't bother to wait around.

Just a reminder that for every round you play you are awarded a raffle ticket to go towards the end of year raffle, then extra tickets are issued if you wear the official club shirt plus extra tickets can also be won by winning a hole in the monthly skins competition.

“SKINS” were distributed to those players good enough to win a hole outright. If more than 1 player got the lowest score on a hole it is Jackpotted until an outright winner occurs.

It is a bit rough when you have 2 birdies for the day and still don’t win a skin it appears the competition is certainly toughening up these days.

In Summary skins were won by:

Rick McEvoy

Just a reminder that it is a good idea to get into the habit of putting a marking on your ball to help you to be able to identify which one is yours, especially now that a few more players are be starting to use the new Sunday Leave Pass Logo golf balls (although Matt & Rick seem to be the only ones who are collecting the balls lately.) Remember the prize balls all have exactly the same number and print on them so it might be worth getting in the habit of writing your initials on the ball just so that you can always tell which ball you are hitting especially when blokes like Stu Coops are always hitting the ball onto the wrong fairway.

Despite constant reminders, we still have a problem getting some people to reply and confirm their status for the next month and unfortunately we are also still having to chase a few guys up in order to ensure that they have paid by EFT before the deadline date. Please be aware that if we get 28 players confirmed and paid up then we will not bother chasing you up and you will miss out on a spot. Bookings will be made on a first paid first served basis. We don't want to have the situation where guys miss out, but if you can't book a spot for your self be replying to the emails sent to you then you deserve to miss out.

It was great to see Chris Sfiligoj buy all of his gear from the Golf Clearance Outlet. From all accounts Sam and the boys at the Golf Clearance Outlet did him a great deal and what's more the club also benefits from his purchase with extra sponsorship dollars from the GCO to go towards the end of year prizes. Anybody else who is looking for some new gear make sure that the GCO is your first stop and don't forget to let them know that you are part of the Sunday Leave Pass Social Club and you'll get a better discount.

All of the hats and stubby holders are now available, the majority of the guys have already picked them up on Sunday, the feedback from everyone who ordered them was that they are very good. If you ordered one and haven't got it yet, we can either arrange for you to pick it up otherwise we'll have it ready for you next month when you play. Rick we will let you know if they are ever available for free and then you can get one then or you can wait for the end of year raffle with 8 skins this month you would be sure to win a prize.

Thanks for a good turn out this month and the bar balanced so thanks for everyone who took part. With any luck Dorset will provide some of the great scores similar to this months golf, remember that Steve Powne is defending his Eagle title since this is the course that he scored an eagle 2 on the 3rd hole last year.

We look forward to seeing you all again next month.
