Ivanhoe Results September

This months results can be viewed on

<http://sundayleavepass.boodi.com/>

Definitely a much better course this month than Ringwood, with pure fairways and very good greens and a very enjoyable layout, the only thing that let the Ivanhoe course down was the fact that the tees were about as flat as a sumo wrestler lying on a waterbed.

As it has done in the past, Ivanhoe produced some incredibly low scores with more than half the field playing to their handicap or better. Lukey D was the man of the moment producing a personal best round of 90, cleaning up the field with a Nett 60. It was great to see Lukey win, he has been playing since March 2004 and he has never even won himself a NTP ball, in fact this month was the first time he had ever even hit a tee shot onto a Par 3 green to be in contention for a NTP so he was shattered when Al had knocked him off for the NTP on the 8th hole but I am sure a Monthly title will have him celebrating for weeks.

It was excellent to see some new names at the top end of the leader board, as well as Lukey being the victor, following closely behind in 2nd place was Phil Plane, shooting a brilliant round off 99 Nett 66 improving his personal best score by a whopping 8 strokes. Apparently his score could have been even better had it not been for the heavy sledging and mind games being played on him by Jamie and his cohorts who did their best to try and bring him back to their skill level. In third spot was Burnsie who shot a Nett 67. Considering, Burnsies first drive didn't make it past the ladies markers a round of 95 was a brilliant effort.

Alistair had been heard making the comment “it’s amazing that after all the years of playing each month I can’t believe Burnsie is not getting any better,” that was reinforced by his comments on the first hole which Al so accurately identified “that is unbelievably bad, not only did he fail to get past the ladies but he didn’t even hit it past the men’s markers. What a shocker!!!!”

It sounds as though Burnsie might be getting a nomination for the Least Improved Award from AI, which although could be justifiable, may be disappointing for Greg Parsons who was aggressively campaigning for votes in the car park after the game. Greg pleads a good case too. He has played all of the 9x rounds for the year and has only posted 9 championship points, making him the only player who has not had a top 10 finish for the season. Given that he played in Round 1 when there were only 11 players in the field that's a pretty ordinary performance and is probably worthy of a "Least Improved Nomination."

Hopefully by now people are starting to consider their nominations for the players choice awards, the voting forms are up on the website and votes can be posted at any time. Remember you can vote for as many players for each category as you see fitting and “Yes” Greg you can vote for your self if you think it is appropriate.

The voting categories are:

- * The least improved player
- * The angry man award
- * The most improved player
- * The leather wedge

Fil could win himself a few of the trophies this year. He already has the “Most Annoying Person Award” which was wrapped up with a landslide victory however he could also be considered for the Angry Man Award after his hissy fit on the 9th hole this month.

Fil was in the process of building an excellent score with 2 birdies in the first 7x holes but he came unstuck on the 9th hole when he duffed a simple drive on one of the easiest holes on the golf course. Fil was just in the final movements of his golf swing when a poor unfortunate young kid rode past on the bike path beside the golf course. As the little girl (probably about 11 years old) rounded the corner she rang her bell to notify any oncoming cyclists of her presence as she rounded a sharp bend. The timing was incredible, the bell rang just as Fil leant into a disastrous shank and his ball careered off through the scrub over the fence nearly knocking the little girl off her bike as it bounced off one of her training wheels.

Fil turned white and then red and finally he turned purple, then he took off in pursuit of his ball. Initially we thought the chameleon like changes in his face where because he was embarrassed at playing such a terrible shot, then we thought he was worried about how close he had come to hitting the girl and that he was running to see if she was OK and to say sorry, but it turns out Fil had decided that this innocent Ivanhoe Girls Grammar School honors student had deliberately tried to put him off his game and he blamed her for his terrible shot. Fil took off after her, jumping the boundary fence wielding his golf club, threatening to knock her head off and calling the innocent little angel names that I am sure she hadn't even been taught yet in sex education class yet. The poor thing rode away in fear for her life as the enraged ape tried to catch her, but luckily for her she got away safely because who knows what would have happened had he caught her because by definition Fil was an "Angry Man."

It seems there was a lot of outside interference from off the golf course. Al Bayer got the benefit of a lucky bounce from a wayward shot on the 4th hole. According to eyewitness' Al's tee shot was well and truly out of bounds almost in the Yarra River when some heavenly intervention fell in his favour, apparently somehow the ball mysteriously bounced back onto the golf course from out of bounds and stayed in play. What's worse was that his next stroke a dodgy chip shot which despite the poor contact, rolled along the ground, spun sideways off a sprinkler head and smashed into the bottom of the flag before actually dropping in for a birdie "2." Amazing to see, considering what realistically should have been a "6 or 7" for the hole, and he ends up with a birdie, with holes like that there little wonder why he is leading the Seasons Championship points tally.

On the contrary poor Steve Powne couldn't win a trick, Steve lost about 8x golf balls for the day and most of those were from positions where you would expect to find the ball 9 out of 10 times, since they were often shots that didn't even look like they were in trouble. To make up for his bad luck Steve did manage to chip in a couple of times and won the nearest to pin on the 15th hole and came close to the longest drive as well. It seems the new set of golf clubs that he bought from the Golf Clearance Outlet were a very good investment and his game continues to get better and better.

Steve might be worthy of a couple of votes for the Leather Wedge award however, since he was part of the last group who unbelievably claimed to have won all of the Nearest to pins and longest drive prizes. I'm not making any allegations but it does seem a bit strange that the guys who collected the markers managed to make a clean sweep of the prizes. Mmmmmmmmm makes you think something might be a bit sus.

Final Results at Ivanhoe were as follows:

| 12th Hole | Stuart Cooper |
| 15th Hole | Steve Powne |
| 18th Hole | No one Good enough |
| Longest Drive | Alistair Bayer (surprise!!!!) |

Reminder

The ball must be clearly on the CUT surface of the green or fairway to win NTP or longest drive. If it is not on the fairway it doesn't count.

Each player won 1 ball each.

Golf balls are still owed to the following people:

|-------------------|---|
| Luke Dunbrell | 3x golf balls winner at Ivanhoe |
| Warren Stewart | 2x golf balls for NTP at Ringwood 5th & 16th Hole |
| Matt MacIssac | 1x golf balls for NTP at Ringwood 12th Hole |
| Warren Stewart | 3x golf balls winner at Devil Bend |
| Daniel De Marinis | 1x golf balls for NTP on 18 th at Centenary Park |
| Darren Higgs | 1x golf balls for NTP on 10 th Glen Waverley |
| Simon Dawson | 6x golf balls for Winner of Ambrose competition 2006 |

The top of the 2008 leaders board is down to whether Rick, Warren or Matt can catch up with Alistair. One of those guys really needs to win at Amstel and then at Tocumwal on the Saturday and then rely on Alistair finishing both events outside the top 10. Mathematically it is possible but on form you would have to be brave to bet against the current leader.

The career statistics program can calculate all manner of trivial things including; the average score per round, total number of pars, total number of birdies, overall number of shots and best and worst ever rounds. If you are interested in how your golf is going you can check your stats and see how you stack up against others.

This month we are running a profile on the guy who is now odds on favorite to become the season's champion for 2008. Alistair Bayer (some call him Ned Kelly) started with the club in late 2007 after 3x shaky rounds he managed to land himself a 19 handicap, which the handicapper having realized the mistake has since managed to slash down to 11. Al is a big hitter and despite only joining the club last year has managed to win 5 monthly titles, which is nearly more than almost everyone else in the club. From 10 rounds he has an average place finish of 3rd spot and scores nearly seven pars and a birdie with each round, which is very impressive record.

To check out all of Alistair's stats you can click on the following link. Alistairs Career Stats or to view your own statistics you can log into the Sunday Leave Pass Website and click on Career Statistics to see how you stack up against Al.

Another of our regular players is Lukey Dumbrell, he played his first round with the Sunday Leave Pass back in March 2004, since then he has clocked up over 3192 shots at an average of 110 strokes per round and also more than 200 cans from the bar at an average of 7x beers per round. Lukey averages nearly 5x strokes per hole on par 3's and averages around 7.5x shots on the par 5's. Lukey's best ever round was a 90 at Ivanhoe this month beating his previous best at the same course in 2006, which is far improved of his 125 at Werribee park on his first ever round with the boys. On average Lukey generally finishes around 10th on the times that he manages to get out of bed and make it to the course. He has the club record of 11 No-shows including the golf trip in 2006 when he got lost on the way and turned back for home instead. To check out all of Lukey's stats you can click on the following link. Lukey D Career Stats or to view your own statistics you can log into the Sunday Leave Pass Website and click on Player Stats tab to see how you stack up against Luke and everyone else.

Just a reminder that for every round you play you are awarded a raffle ticket to go towards the end of year raffle, then extra tickets are issued if you wear the official club shirt plus extra tickets can also be won by winning a hole in the monthly skins competition.

"SKINS" were distributed to those players good enough to win a hole outright. If more than 1 player got the lowest score on a hole it is Jackpotted until an outright winner occurs.

Skins won at Yarrambat were as follows:

|----|-----------------------|
| 1 | Jackpot |
| 2 | Jackpot |
| 3 | Jackpot |
| 4 | Tony MacIssac |
| 5 | Jackpot |

Handicaps
A couple of exceptional rounds allowed the handicapper to take a piece from several players handicaps, with Lukey, Phil and Burnsie getting the largest share of the snip. In total 5x players played better than their handicaps and only 8x of us failed to score at a suitable level for an easy course like Ivanhoe.
