

>It gives us great pleasure to report that Daniel De Marinis didn't win his >fourth consecutive Sunday Leave Pass Event. Luckily for us he didn't play so >the rest of us had a chance to take out the title. It was Fitzy who landed >the knockout punch. What a round, after a birdie on the first hole we knew >he was in for a good one. Fitzy had 7 pars, 5 bogies and a birdie giving him >a score of 83 and an amazing nett result of 59 that's 10 under par. Look out >Fitzy the handicapper is out to get you lets see how you go playing off a 21 >handicap next month.

>Darren Higgs played what would ordinarily be considered a sensational round >he shot 86 off the stick and was unlucky not to come first with his nett 65 >round. Darren has been a consistent performer and is a good chance to knock >Gerard off his perch if he plays the full year in 2006. Darren also knocked >the longest drive down the 10th fairway.

>Steve Powne was inspired by either the swans victory on Saturday or by his >playing partner Fitzy, he played a personal best Sunday Leave pass score, he >hit a 97 and nett 66 which saw him finish in 3rd place earning him 8 >championship points.

>As there was a few good scores come in there has been a few adjustments to >players handicaps, none more so than Fitzy who loses three shots off his >handicap. If you play worse than par your handicap goes out 0.1 at a time so >remember Fitzy it will be nearly 3 years before you play off 24 again.

>As we get closer to the end of the year there is a bit of movement on the >leaderboard. Gerard is still out in front but Daniel DeMarinis and Fitzy are >Shot of the day went to Brett Hansen who had an eagle 2 on the 17th Hole.

>That's only the second eagle we've ever had and even better, apparently he >was stuck behind the trees and he couldn't even see the hole when he hit it >and had to run out of the bushes to watch it go into the hole. Well done >mate.
>Matt MacIssac won nearest the pin on the 2nd hole, Brett Hansen on the 6th, >no-one on the 11th & 13th, and finally Stu C on the 14th (grubber worst shot >of the day). Darren Higgs won the longest drive on the 387 metre 10th hole.

>into the draw for the major prize raffle at the end of the year.
>Note: A skin is won when a player has a score on a hole lower than everybody >else on that same hole. If more than one person has the lowest score the

>Therefore, a total of 33 raffle tickets were awarded for the round (16 entry

>All raffle tickets will go in for a major prize (and 2 minor prizes) at the

>We have booked all of the courses for next years fixture, we have kept most >of the same courses although we have ditched both the Growling Frog course >and replaced it with Beacon Hills and Malvern Valley. We will have the 2006 >fixture ready by the end of year trip. Each course has been booked for a >maximum of 24 players, we have booked an extra 4 players to allow everyone >to have a chance to play. We have had good numbers this year and welcome any >new comers who want to be regular players.
>Please remember that we prepay all confirmed bookings in advance. Over the >last few months we have had a few people say that they would be playing and >then not to turn up on the day, in these cases we are still obligated to pay >the golf course for the booking even if they don't play. It is a player's >responsibility to find a substitute for themselves or pay for the game
