NEXT STOP GOLF TRIP 2017 Corowa Golf Club

GOLF TRIP PAYMENTS DUE.

The date of the golf trip will be Friday 8th to Sunday 10th DECEMBER 2017.

Thanks to everyone for getting your payments in. There will be a group of us going up early on Friday morning to ensure we can reserve a good seat at the bar and to check the landscape for any dwarfs that may cos trouble with Mick later on in the day. Our plan is to be at Corowa by about 1030 so we can get a round of golf in before the grog kicks in and we lose muscle coordination.

Golf on the Friday is Pay as you go and we don't have bookings made so you can either try your luck when you arrive at the course or call the pro-shop to book a time once you know your travel plans

Morack Results

What a cracking day for the final home and away round of 2017. All that remains now for the Sunday Leave Pass season is the trip to Corowa, the presentation of the Champion of Champions jacket to Stu Coops and the obligatory awards ceremony. The player's choice awards will be passed off to the deserving winners, and unfortunately the Pommies will get their only victory for the Summer because Tom officially cannot be beaten on points. There will be a plethora of alcohol to be consumed from the Corowa Golf Club as we drain out the fine jar takings. We have worded them up and they have promised to get an extra delivery of booze to make that sure there is enough to go around when the fine jar opens up.

Interestingly there will be a significant change to the formalities this year because Big Mick has been mathematically eliminated from winning the runners up trophy for the first time in 5 years. Justifiably this validates the many votes for him as the Least Improved player in 2017 and makes him a fitting candidate for this prestigious award. With Mick Harper out of the equation, sadly and as a tragic reflection on the rest of our golfing ability it appears that Highway is in the box seat to win the Runners up trophy because now only Chris Sfiligoj is still in a position to run him off the road.

Newell has had a good season this year and has shaved more than 5 shots off his handicap. This is lucky because it has justified taking out the second mortgage on the house to pay for his hundreds of golf lessons that he has had with Darren Rowlands (PGA pro at Ringwood.) Anyone who can convert Newell from what he was last year to what he is today must be bloody good at what he does and I will be putting my hand up for a Christmas wish list to include a few lessons from Darren in my Christmas stockings this year.

Morack delivered near perfect conditions, except for the flooded greens and waterlogged fairways from where the sprinklers had got stuck on overnight, the course was in great condition. It was a monumental occasion as we welcomed Ron Parsons and Greg Breasley into the 100 rounds club. One hundred rounds is a big investment of time it takes around 8-10 years and over 10000 swings of the golf club to achieve this feat.

Ron played his first round with the club in 2004 whereas Greg didn't become part of the family until 2007. Head to head the guys have had a mixed bag of results. Ron has certainly topped the winner's podium on more occasions, winning 5 titles to Greg's one. Greg on the other hand has donned the pink vest a few more times and Greg also has Ron covered in the putting department because Ron racked up the worst score with 50 putts during a round at Waterford Valley. There is only an average of 3 shots per round between the two guys although Ronnie has Big Ball Breasley covered when it comes to birdies and pars.

Both Greg and Ron hit arguably their best drives ever through the 100 game banner on Sunday, we are not sure whether the fact that they couldn't see where they were aiming or where the ball went proved to be advantageous but both drives finished in the middle of the fairway. Greg Breasley was 225 meters down the runway. Ron made a par on the first hole and Greg scored a bogey so they were well within their rights to ask for the banner to be set up for them on every hole.

Perhaps Leigh and his group were blindsided when it came to the longest drive hole, because they failed to notice that Leigh had hit his long drive beyond the fairway and into the first cut. Admittedly it was probably not the best hole to have a longest drive competition when you can run out of fairway by hitting the ball too far however it is important to keep within the rules of the game. Consequently the Longest Drive Competition was marred by controversy because Tony Grasso's ball was clearly on the fairway and although Mick Harper and Leigh hit the ball further they were not necessarily on the short stuff. We are going to have a simple competition called on or off. Below is a photo of the divot of where Leigh played his second shot from and the Sunday Leave Pass members as the jury can decide if it should be declared as "ON" or "OFF" We have also Hidden Where's Wally in the image just to make it even more challenging.

ON THE FAIRWAY

Help us work out whether the ball is "ON" or "OFF" the fairway

OFF THE FAIRWAY

The ex-supercoach soon to be Least Improved, Angryman and Leather Wedge Award and Corowa Beerwench was never in contention for the longest drive title. Fil had yet another deplorable round. His drive on the first went along the ground 30 meters and disappeared into the bushes and that was his best shot for the day. Mark accrued the maximum fine limit by the 10th hole as he topped, shanked and dribbled his way around the golf course. I reckon even Darren Rowland would struggle to get Fil back into line, perhaps the best solution would be to take up another sport. Floral arranging might be something he has some competencies in.

The only highlight for the day other than scaping in avoiding Beer wench duties for the third time for the year was a Chip in zero putt bogey on the 14th hole.

Gobblers were the order of the day, and it wasn't just Fil who chipped in, Brendan Mac holed his shot from off the green on the 9th hole and Mark Fitzpatrick had 2x No Putt Greens for the round.

It was lucky Fitzzy could chip because he certainly couldn't drive. He was out blasted by his 12 year old son Jaxon with every tee shot they played and what's worse his son couldn't help but laugh when his Dads drive on the first hole only just got past the ladies markers. It wasn't a smart thing to say to the old man when you were hoping for an invitation back next year but when Jaxon said "that's a shocker dad but at least it was straight" it was certainly funny.

Stu Coops has no right to pass judgement on anyone else because he got unsettled on the 5th hole and never recovered. Jaxon was not even able to add commentary to Stu's game and he definitely could not say that it was at least a straight shot because it never happened. Stu sprayed balls everywhere, he was 5 off the tee on the 11th hole and again on the 14th hole. Stu shot a blistering 57 on the back nine to go from runner up contender to run away pretender. The only target Stu hit for the day was Fitzzy's backside. Stu bladed a chip shot over the bunker on the 17th hole which proceeded to crashed into Marks tail bone.

Brad Hughes played the ultimate embarrassing shot when he actually managed to hit the ball into himself. Brad was playing his second shot into the par 4 17th hole when he cold topped the ball into the ground. The ball dug into the grass and bounced back up towards himself, it struck him on the left shoulder and dribbled across his chest before dropping down and crashing into his right knee. I'm not sure if he was more devastated because of the quality of the shot he had played, the two shot penalty he incurred for hitting himself with the ball, the $2.00 fine or the fact that he did it right in front of an audience. Brad was tracking pretty well for the season until he arrived at Morack where it seemed the wheels fell off completely.

Speaking of the wheels falling off, we found this buggy on the first hole. As soon as he saw it SOS came to the most logical of explanations, given it is his local course and only minutes from home he deduced that Rick must have had a practice round on Saturday.

Chris Sfiligoj nearly took the wheels off a Mitsubishi Lancer after he was forced to play his fourth shot on the 18th hole from the Morack Car Park. Chris overcooked his approach to the green and his ball finished 30 meters over the back of the putting surface and actually hit a couple of cars before come to rest in the gutter.

There were some very good rounds of golf played at Morack, Todd Neilson having left plenty of free beers in the Champion of Champions jacket decided he wasn't going to give it up so easily. Todd had the lowest Nett Score for the day, 66 which means he wins the Morack monthly total and gains eligibility to compete off for the Champion of Champions title again this year.

The Champion of Champions competition is played off on the Saturday of the golf trip where all of the monthly winners play off for the ultimate prize, in a stableford competition on 9 randomly selected holes.

This year's competitors will include the following members:

~~Ian Mutes~~ (Jan) Chris Sfiligoj (Feb) Newell Richards (Mar) Shane Cummings (Apr) Stuart Cooper (May & Jul 2) Tom Kellythorn (Jun) Greg Parsons (Jun 2) Steve Powne (Jul) Steve O'Sullivan (Aug) ~~Vedran Martinovic~~ (Sep) Colin Ewart (Oct) Todd Neilson (Nov) ?????? (Dec) The December winner is entered into the competition however their score is only from 8 holes.

Obviously Ian Mutes and Vedran Martinovic are already out of contention owing to the fact that they are not going on the golf trip. The player who has the most stableford points from the 9 randomly selected holes will be crowned champion of champions will be afforded the blue Jacket which when worn to a Sunday Leave Pass event in 2018 entitles them to claim a free drink from any Sunday Leave Pass member. The condition being that they cannot ask the same person more than once over the course of the year and they must be wearing the jacket to claim the entitlement. So if managed well this Champ of Champs should be able to claim upwards of 40 free beers in the new season.

Newell Richards has run into some good form at the correct end of the season, given he has booked 5x practice rounds and two on course playing lessons before he goes away on the golf trip he will be a very handy player to be paired up with in the Beer and Berrocca Sheild Ambrose Competition on the Sunday.

Big Ball Breasley might also be a good player to pair up with, if he can hit the ball straight and long like he did on the first hole. With his handicap and distance might come in very handy. If you have ever wondered why Greg is called Big Ball Breasley and how he hits the ball so far, it becomes pretty obvious once you look at his swing in slow motion and you see the force and whip that he generates through his club head and shaft.

Leigh MacIsaac was in fine form on Sunday, he was driving long and straight and put together a very healthy round, not even a lost ball on the par 5 second hole was enough to slow his momentum. A couple of birdies, plenty of pars and Nett 67 (82 off the stick) was a good enough score for a second place finish at Morack.

Shanno Cummin (cider) had a day out for a change. The smiling assassin relished the left handed designed golf course. Cider hit an 83 off the bat to place himself in third position and elevated his ranking by 13 points in the points leaderboard tally. Newell and SOS both scored 72 Nett however 22 stableford points on the back nine gave Newell a higher ranking after the countback.

Tom overcame a rocky start to recover and his very respectable back nine caught him up into 10th place securing him a guaranteed unassailable lead on the points championship ladder going into the Corowa.

Thanks to all of the guys who got on board and cast their votes for the Sunday Leave Pass player's choice awards. We have had a good contribution this year which gives a better spread of votes across the group although common threads are pretty evident. We look forward to revealing the winners during the awards ceremony on the Saturday afternoon of the golf trip.

Congratulations to Brendan MacIsaac who won a bag of 8 skins when he holed his putt for a par on the Par 3 Thirteenth hole. Brendan had a big day out and gave his bionic body parts a real workout. By the end of his 141 shots every screw, rod, pin and plate that are holding his battle worn body together were in need of a dose of WD40 and a service. The highlight of the day was scoring a par. Brendan played a good drive just short of the green, chipped to 10 feet and holed the putt. Evidently it wasn't all plain sailing though. Brendan's putt was hit with a bit too much enthusiasm. His ball smashed into the back of the cup, bounced about a foot in the air and then dropped back to earth and landed in the hole.

Damage to back of hole after Brendan knock his Putt in for Par.

Evergreen Winery Tours

Yarra Ranges Wine Regions

Sponsored by

For those who were not aware of the "hole in one prize", any player who scores a hole in one or an Albatross during a Sunday Leave Pass event will win a complimentary Chauffeur Driven Winery Tour for 2x people through the Yarra Valley, courtesy of Evergreen Winery Tours. So start aiming at the hole we want to give it away this year there was a few close calls over the years but we are still yet to achieve the perfect shot despite more than 17000 attempts since 2004.

(In 1999, Golf Digest reported, "One insurance company puts a PGA Tour pro's chances at 1 in 3,756 and an amateur's at 1 in 12,750.")
The Golf Digest study even breaking the odds down by quality of play:

- Professional Tour player making an ace: 3,000 to 1
- Low-handicapper making an ace: 5,000 to 1
- Average player making an ace: 12,000 to 1

Based on this information we are due any time so make sure you turn up to play as it may just be you that claims the ultimate prize.
