

SUNDAY LEAVE PASS 2014

PLEASE NOTE: Before we get into the results for the 2014 Sunday Leave Pass season and the end of year golf trip. Please make sure you let us know as early as possible if you will be playing in January. We are expecting bigger attendances each month next year and we have only booked for limited players. With a few new faces expressing some interest in landing a regular spot it sounds as though the numbers may go up next year. We hope to see you all out there again in January at Waterford Valley. For the guys who went on the golf trip they should have all received a copy of next year's fixture. For everyone else who didn't make the trek to Echuca we will have them available for the first few rounds of next year. A copy of the fixture has been posted on the Sunday Leave Pass Website. <http://www.sundayleavepass.com/2015%20Fixture.htm> and it has also been included at the end of the golf trip results blurb.

If you haven't already can you please let us know if you are expecting to play next year, we have booked for a maximum of 32 players but we need a more accurate guide on who we should expect to play regularly in 2015?

Final results for Sunday Leave Pass Social Club 2014

Proudly presented to you by our Sponsor's for the 2014 season.

As the season draws to a close we would like to thank the Sunday Leave Pass sponsors for 2014. Once again all of the great prizes for the 2014 Points champion and runner up as well as all of the Raffle prizes were supplied by James from Drummond Golf- Burwood.

If you are planning on ordering any golf stuff for Christmas from the family or want to get yourself a gift from Santa Clause, (its only 3& 1/2 weeks away folks) if you drop into the Drummond Golf- Burwood store and mention the Sunday Leave Pass Social Club they will see that you are looked after, although most of you are also now Drummond Club Members and therefore receive discounts as part of your registration.

We would also like to make special mention to say thanks to Dale Robinson who has been a long term supporter, player and sponsor via DNR print of the Sunday Leave Pass Social Club.

It's always important to remember who your sponsors within the social club are and to give them a referral or utilize their services if and when the opportunity ever arises. Dale has had an ongoing gentlemen's agreement with Sunday Leave Pass social club where any business he receives via club members or contacts he kicks a percentage back to the social club directly. We are hoping to be able to purchase some printed or engraved SLP logo beer mugs to use as monthly prizes next year courtesy of the donations Dale has committed as a result of some of the print jobs he picked up via Spring Park Golf Course and Woodtech and a few others.

Cheap Printing check out what's available don't forget to contact Dale if you need any Printing supplies for 2014. Please remember to support the guys in the club every chance that you get.

All of our prize golf balls are a direct result of a most generous donation negotiated by Peter Hutson through his work. This was an incredibly wonderful boost to the club and we should be most grateful for the effort Pete made to secure the cash commitment from his boss and we personally thank THE WOOD TECH GROUP for getting involved with the Sunday Leave Pass Social Club.

The Sunday Leave Pass Social Club has now been in action for over 11 years and over that time we have just about seen it all, just about anything that could possibly happen on the golf course good or bad has, at one time or another happened within the group. About the only thing missing from our highlights and low lights portfolio is a HOLE IN ONE. Geoff Cooper from Evergreen Winery Tours has been sponsoring the Hole in one prize for the last 5 years and according to the experts the probability of one of us hitting a hole in one is just about due. The chances of a social golfer having a hole in one is somewhere around 13000-16000 to 1. Over the last 11 years we have hit close to 13,117 shots in to par 3 holes but no one as yet has managed to get one exactly right. When someone does get a Hole in One, they will be lucky enough to win a winery tour for two people through the Yarra Valley courtesy of Evergreen Winery Tours. We had a few close calls this weekend, David Burns hit the flag on Saturday and then a couple of groups later on the very same hole, Peter Hutson rolled directly over the cup, but neither of their balls did the right thing and dropped in so the prize is still up for grabs.

We are hoping some other members might be able to get involved and do some sort of sponsorship if the opportunity arises. We are happy to plug your product or promote your business in return for some sort of commitment to the operation of Social Club.

Rich River Golf Trip Results

GOLF TRIP 2014

One would think that after 5 or 6 years of attending the golf trip the Supercoach would have worked out what he needs to take with him. Evidently he doesn't though because when his transport arrived to collect him at 8am in the morning the Supercoach was standing in the front yard sporting nothing more than a pair of golf shoes, a single beer bottle and some sort of p00fy pink toiletry bag.

Rich River was a more about fashion that it was about the golf. Mick Harper was seen sporting more shirts than they sell in a Gucci store on their Half Price Crazy Friday Sale. It seemed as though after every beer Mick needed to go back to his room to change shirts. Whether that was a fashion thing or if it was because he kept spilling his drinks down the front of his shirt is yet to be determined.

Not the sort of iron play you would expect to see on the golf trip.

The Supercoach also fancied himself as a bit of a fashionister. He would disappear into his room 1 & ½ hours before we were due to meet for drinks and dinner and then he would reemerge with a freshly creased designer shirt. It was soon discovered that his mystery disappearance was so that he could commit the most finable offence possible on golf trip history. The supercoach was actually ironing his shirts.

What's more according to the stay at home Mr. MOM "Highway" the Supercoaches efforts of ironing the shirts was to put it bluntly sub-standard anyway.

According to Newell who, as a full time house husband is an expert in all forms of housework, the shirts after having just been ironed by the Supercoach still had more wrinkles in them than his great grandmothers forehead does after sucking on a lemon.

Supercoach sporting a so-called freshly ironed shirt.

Although the iron didn't work very well on the shirts, Fil had no trouble using the irons to play shots. The supercoach had a great day out with irons and woods. He broke 90 for the first time in 3 years and finished the afternoon with a Nett score of 68. It was a sad day for 21 players and a happy one for the Supercoach. The only pleasure the group got out of Mark winning the day was knowing that he had wasted $20 on beer wench insurance for fear of being seen wearing the pink dress.

The Supercoach was lucky he even got to Rich River to take his place in the field at all. Fil was part of the group that got themselves lost on the way to Rich River and the normally 3 hour trip from Melbourne to Echuca actually took 5 and a half hours courtesy of Chris Sfiligoj and his in ability to take instructions from a Navman satellite GPS system. Having left home from Skye at 650am Chris had a scheduled pick up time from Forest Hill at 730am. Unfortunately things went pear shape from the start and he got lost on the first leg when he took a detour to avoid some road works and ended up driving through Berwick on the way to Stu's house in Forest Hill.

After he missed his first pick up time by 36 minutes the second leg of the trip out to Mooroolbark went according to plan without any further delays. Chris then managed to pick up brother Mark by 830am ready to start the long haul to Echuca. Unfortunately following directions is not one of Chris's strongest points and he somehow managed to get lost again and he found himself driving through Forest Hill for the second time in less than 1 hour. This proved to be quite fortuitous as he was actually able to detour back via Stu Coops' house to pick up the laptop with all of the Sunday Leave scoring programs on it which Stu had forgotten to pack and would have otherwise caused all manner of chaos on the trip had he left it behind.

By 9am Chris was back on the road heading for the Golf course or so we all thought. At 11am a call for help went out via text message as it was realized that the Skoda wagon was lost again. Finally just after 100pm, some 5and ½ hours, 7 beers and 11 toilet stops later the entourage of Chris, Stu, Fil and Newell found their way into their motel ready to relax and join the other golfers who despite most of them leaving later than the Skoda had already managed to play 9 holes, have lunch and were relaxing by the pool.

Off the highway on to back roads	Heading away from Route	Refusing to admit he took wrong turn	Close to Canberra	Looking for civilization

So lost car was out of GPS signal range	Only traffic on the road was a tractor	7 cans later and still lost.	Roads getting worse.	5 hours down and finally back on bituman roads

Chris wasn't the only person to get lost over the weekend. On Saturday night with a few cold drinks under their skin a few of the guys went off the beaten track. As the fine jar funds started to run low some guys started to disappear into the night in varying degrees of sobriety while others kicked on into the night enjoying a game of pool or watching the local geriatric society perform their perfectly choreographed line dancing routines. There was no roll call or no obligation to be anywhere at any time so no one thought twice when Karl had disappeared and hadn't been seen for a few hours. It wasn't until the wee hours of the morning just as all of the bars were all shutting that Karl reemerged from the shadows. Karl suddenly appeared like a ghost in the night and quickly reignited into the action by joining in on a game of one arm pool. However it wasn't long before security arrived and escorted him out of the building. When asked why Karl was removed (especially since he didn't appear to be doing anything wrong) we were told it was not because he was playing a dangerous game of one arm pool but it was because he had previously been ejected from the venue for being asleep on the Pokie Machines and then we were shown footage of him laying passed out on the pokie machine floor.

Karl wasn't the only ghost in the night for the security guards to deal with. Long into the night well after all of the bars had closed and everyone else had gone to bed. Stu Cooper was discovered prowling around the facilities still clutching a celebratory drink and someone to toast his success with. After surviving a late charge from Peter Hutson, Stu managed to win the 2014 points championship trophy on Saturday and he was in the mood to party.

Evidently when security was called out to deal with him after he was discovered loitering in the car park he was wearing nothing more than a pair of black boxer shorts, a GPS wrist watch and stupid drunken smile on his face.

Having fought hard over the last few months to try to rain on Stu's parade and despite playing 2 less rounds, Peter Hutson was a close runner up for the 2014 season points championship. Pete nearly achieved his goal too, he edged to an early 3 shot lead on the front nine holes before surrendering it again after a couple of bad holes and Stu catching a lucky break when he almost hit his ball in the water on the 8th hole but it bounced off a dead tree trunk in the middle of the lake and ricocheted back onto the fairway, somehow Stu finished the hole with a par and never looked like giving Pete a second chance.

Pete wasn't going down without a fight and he took a few victims with him on the way. On the 4th hole Tony MacIsaac was dancing with joy, not because he was still drunk from the 16x Canadian Club & dry's that he had consumed on Friday night but because he was intoxicated with anticipation having knocked his hybrid to 6 feet on the Par 3 fourth hole. Tony looked a shoe in for his second ever career NTP title but unfortunately Pete had a different agenda and he knocked his 6 iron even closer and claimed the title instead.

On the thirteenth hole it was Phil Plane who suffered the wrath from the merciless Jeep man. Standing on the tee looking down to the green on the 13th hole it appeared as though the NTP marker was actually in the hole. The marker was inside a foot and Phil could have been forgiven for feeling a little excited about the prospect of winning a NTP prize ball. Incredibly Phil had managed to play the near perfect shot after knocking off his playing partner Burnsie who had almost holed out. Burnsies ball actually hit the flag stick and finished 4 feet from the cup so it was going to take an awfully good shot to beat it. Phil was the first person able to get inside the brilliant shot from Burnsie and he was then able to tap in for the easiest birdie possible, a putt so short that even Trevor Adair wouldn't have been able to miss it.

Playing in the last group for the day, Peter Hutson was able to put a perfect swing on his 9 iron and his ball chased the flag stick all of the way. The guys playing the group in front can vouch for the fact that Pete's ball actually rolled over the hole and given how close it finished behind the cup it was incomprehensible to work out how or why it didn't go in. The only thing we can put it down to was it just wasn't Pete's lucky day.

Although one could easily argue that given that he did finish the afternoon with two nearest to pins, a $150 voucher from Drummonds for the 2014 Runner up points champion and he also won a brand new Titleist golf bag in the raffle it wasn't all that a bad day for him after all. Especially when he was the only person who managed to get any love and attention, the fact that it was from Karl is only a minor concern.

Pete was the toast of the town and everyone wanted to have a piece of him. He appeared in almost every photo taken on the golf trip as if he was the where's wally of Rich River.

Although Pete jumped in front of the camera with almost every opportunity that presented itself the most incredible feat was how he managed to slip the beloved Jeep into frame as well. No wonder he could keep the smile off his face. If you look at the photo below and steer your focus away from the ugly mugs in the foreground but look at the TV screen you might just see that the image on the screen happens to be a Jeep towing a boat.

Is that a jeep on the television. I think he bought a bigger boat.

It was a monumental weekend for Gerard MacIsaac who is by far the most crowned player inside the Sunday Leave Pass Social Club. Gerard racked up yet another career achievement when he became only the second player to achieve 100 rounds with the group. Gerard was presented with the honor of hitting the first drive through his banner on Saturday morning and by the end of the day he was able to add a couple of extra achievements to his already impressive golfing resume. Gerard's banner was a smorgasbord of awards and achievements and the only titles missing were the title of "Beer Wench" "Angryman" and the "Least Improved award".

Congratulations Gerard

Beer & Berocca Shield, 2008 & 2012

Eclectic Stroke Champion, 2013

Leather Wedge Award, 2010 & 2011

Least Improved Player, 2014.

By Saturday afternoon Gerard was able to add two more feathers to his cap. Gerard was nominated and selected as the 2014 Least Improved player and his golf on the day was by his skillset substandard and he actually finished in Beer Wench position. Our sources tell us that had the voting still been open for Angry Man nominations Gerard might also have got the trifecta especially since he was seen throwing his driver on three separate occasions and he nearly caused an earthquake when he smashed his putter into the ground after 3 putting 14th green.

To his credit Gerard performed his wenching duties with absolute professionalism, and unlike a real woman he never once complained, he was fast and efficient, he was polite and most importantly he never flinched when you pinched him on the butt or gave his jugs a wobble. Our only complaint was when Geraldine started paying more attention to a guy at the bar who actually didn't realize that "she was a he" and we had to wait a little extra for service while Gerard lead the poor unfortunate soul on by flirting unashamedly with him.

The Champion of Champions competition was played off between all of the players who won a monthly competition during the year; the champion of champions is the player who has the best score from all of the monthly winners who attended the golf trip. This competition was played off over 9 mystery holes on the Saturday competition with the player who scored the most stableford points taking out the title and adorned the coveted winner's jacket.

Congratulations to Phil Plane who was the overall winner of the Champions of Champions trophy with 22 stableford points. Phil was aided by the fact that he had a sensational birdie 2 for 4 stableford points on the thirteenth hole. It was a great result for Phil who had actually only just missed out on wearing the Blue Jacket last year when he lost to Gerard MacIsaac on a countback.

Gerard was in the Champion of Champions playoffs this year however having taken the jacket home twice previously he was under strict instructions that if he brought it home again in 2014 he would be sleeping on the side walk and his wife had made it perfectly clear that he would be grounded from his next China trip should he win again this year. Obviously Gerard likes his trips to China or he is just scared of making his wife angry because his performance for the day was absolutely terrible. Gerard actually finished at the other end of the leaderboard this year and was left to explain to his wife why this year he was bring him a lovely pink dress and a blond wig.

Sunday is the day of sore heads and recovery and that is why it is structured as a compulsory Golf Cart and a pairs Ambrose golf tournament for the BEER & BEROCCA SHEILD. There were some impressive scores posted with more teams shooting in the 70's than any other year of the event. The title went to Colin Ewart whos shoulders were just strong enough to carry the weight & burden of Mick Harper as his partner. The boys actually hit an impressive score of 75 off the stick, Nett 64 finishing ahead of Trevor Adair & Phil Plane, then the Beer Wench and the serial Beer Wench managed to finish in 3rd place.

Winners are grinners and it was nice to see a smile on Phil Planes face as he was crowned the “Champion of Champions” and presented with the coveted blue jacket. Phil has had a brilliant year in 2014 and was a strong contender, polling plenty of votes for the most improved title as well. As the champion of champions Phil was entitled to free drinks from everyone within the social group on Saturday night, although as the gentleman that he is he opted to refrain from hitting any of the boys up for a drink, but instead he focused his attention on ensuring the Fine Jar fund ran down and the beer wench was kept busy when she wasn’t being hit on by the desperate Echuca locals.

In the skins competition the result came down to a tie between Ron Parsons and Tony MacIsaac. Both guys collected 17 skins between the January and November rounds and therefore have to share the trophy but each of them also won 3 golf balls for their achievement.

Ron also proved himself to be a strong player in the Eclectic Stableford competition. As a last minute attendee on the golf trip Ron made the entire journey worthwhile since he not only took home the skins trophy but also the Eclectic Stableford with 66 points and he won a new hybrid club in the raffle for himself and he was also able to check off Greg’s Christmas present as he took home the golf buggy which Greg won so he could give it to him on Christmas day. It was actually lucky for Greg that Ron had stepped in to fill Brendan’s spot when he pulled out because had he not been there to collect the prize, the majority were ruling on redrawing Greg’s prize because he was too soft to make the effort to join us on the golf trip.

Skins Champs

Most Improved

Toasting his success

Highway couldn’t keep the grin off his face, not only had he managed to play his way out of Wood & Spoon position (he left that title for Greg Breasley with an average of 18.14) Newell was at one point averaging over 21 but with some strong finishes over the last three rounds in the top 10 he was able to reduce his place average to 16.64. He was also voted by his peers as the most improved player in 2014. It would have been pretty hard not to nominate him for Most Improved especially since at the start of the year he was averaging scores of 140 and 150 and the last three rounds of the season he was posting scores in the 110’s.

Newell believes he has come up with the winning formula and he is taking a box of laxettes before every round, according to his mentors advice, clutching his ass checks together makes it impossible to over swing, although his technique nearly came unstuck on the tenth hole when he relaxed the sphincter while trying to win the longest drive competition and he suddenly needed to make a quick detour back to the room to change his shorts and to pour the slippage out of his underpants.

The longest drive competition on Saturday was played on the 10th hole because it was the only fairway that Mark Fitzpatrick the designated marker bearer hit for the day. He thought he was in for a good chance to win the prize too especially since the fairway was so narrow that it was almost impossible to hit. Fortunately for Fitz the plan appeared to be working because all of the power hitters, Mick, Gerard and Trevor were unable to keep the ball on the straight and narrow, however Cider (Shane Cummings) played his only good shot for the entire weekend and was able to walk away with the longest drive title.

Mark was fined on numerous occasions for failing to get past the ladies tees during the weekend, however his worst shot was his drive on the 11th hole during the Ambrose pairs competition when his ball almost failed to get off the tee box, let alone get passed the ladies markers. The funny part was that he still took his drive as the selected team drive because although the Supercoach had only hit his ball 27meters further his ball was actually in the rough and not in good position to play the next shot. After 6 shots, 3 each the boys still hadn’t got passed the ladies tees and the Supercoach had proved why he had been voted the “Angryman in 2011/12 by throwing every club in his bag.

Fitzy's Drive

The Supercoach and Gerard both put forward very good cases as to why they are good candidates for nominations for the angry man award however for the third year in a row it was Rick Turcinovic who took home the trophy. Rick was as proud as punch to receive the acclaim. He was heard saying to someone, “I just love trophies I don’t care what it is for I am just happy to have something to take home to show the missus. Apparently bringing home golf trophies reminds her of their first intimate moment which just happened to be on the ninth green at Morack so therefore the chances of getting a bit of conjugal action increases when he arrives adorning a phallic memento as a prize from the golf trip.

As for the rest of the field and their golf, the final finishing place rankings on Saturday, Sunday and the champion of Champions were as follows:

Winner for the day Mark Sfiligoj Won 3 Golf Balls.

Winner of the “BEER WENCH” award was Gerard MacIsaac who shot the worst round for the day.

Winner for the Champion of Champions award was Phil Plane

Congratulations to Stuart Cooper who won the seasons points champion trophy. It has been ten years since Stu last won the title as he won in 2004 in the clubs very first season when there was only 10 members and back in those days you didn't even win yourself a golf ball. Stu also has a good season with the putter and was able to knock Gerard MacIsaac off in the best putting average competition and with 12 birdies and 6 pars he was also the best score in the Eclectic Stroke competition.

The Runner Up this year was Peter Hutson who despite missing a couple of games still came close to taking out the major prize. Both the first and second prize gift vouchers were supplied by Drummond Golf- Burwood.

The Social club runs as a neutral organization and all of the money we raise each year is spent on prizes and we start each year with basically a zero $$$$ bank balance. As was to be expected the fine jar kitty was drunk dry in the early hours of Sunday morning and the proceeds of the club activities which includes green fees, and beverage & merchandise sales were invested in the form of prizes for the end of year raffle draw. In total we had more than $2000 worth of prizes to give away. The spoils were spread over more than 25 of our members.

The raffle is conducted by issuing every player a ticket for each round of golf that they play over the course of the year. If a player wears the Sunday Leave Pass Club shirt to the round they are given a second raffle ticket. We also run an 18x hole skins competition where every hole is worth one raffle ticket and a player wins raffle tickets for scoring a better stableford score than the rest of the field. In the skins competition whenever 2 or more players have the best score on a hole the raffle tickets carry over and jackpot until a unique hole-winner is achieved. Some players had some significant Jackpots where they won 6 or more skins at the one time. This dramatically increases the number of raffle tickets a player has but at the end of the day the raffle all comes down to chance.

As a matter of fairness a player is only entitled to take home one prize no matter how many times their name is drawn in the raffle. A player is entitled to upgrade to a better prize if their name comes out again and the lesser prize is redrawn. In order to qualify for the Major Prizes a player must have played at least 6 rounds with the club or be in attendance at the Golf Trip to claim the prize.

Congratulations to all of the winners. It was a real love fest in the raffle this year with many players accepting a lesser prize because they were happy with what they had. Steve Powne accepted a golf hat in exchange for a golf bag. Greg Breasley knocked back drivers, hybrid clubs, golf bags and even a slab of bourbon so that he could keep his umbrella and Dale Robinson was so content with his new Odyssey putter that he passed up a set of Cleveland irons the major prize. A special thanks to all of those guys for their generosity and social responsibility. It made me proud to have these guys as members of the club. Well done to you all for your selfless attitudes.

PLEASE NOTE: If you have won a prize and you were not on the golf trip to collect your prize please be aware that we will not be chasing you up. The prizes will be kept in storage until the end of the next season and if they have not been claimed by the winners by next season's golf trip then they will be added to next year's raffle. So remember that if you have won a prize you will need to drop me an email or call me to claim your prize and arrange for your prize to be made available to you. If a player has not read the results email or checked up on the Sunday Leave Pass website then they will not be aware of their winnings and therefore not deserving of the prize.

If you have already been contemplating what to buy people for Christmas or more importantly what you want them to buy for you then why not check out the latest deals on offer from our sponsors the Drummond Golf- Burwood For a look at their latest December Specials you can click on the following link:
