SUNDAY LEAVE PASS 2007

Special Thanks to our prize sponsor Sam from team at

Tocumwal Golf Trip Results

For the guys who didn't make it to Tocumwal this year you missed a great weekend, and for the guys that did go, it's just a pity that you can't remember what happened while you were there.

Firstly we would like to say thanks to everyone for making the season very successful and we hope that the golf trip capped the year off for you in a good way. I will try and keep the summary short but there are a few events that should be mentioned before we publish all of the winners and results.

For example it wouldn't be right to talk about the weekend with out highlighting Dales effort to be incapacitated before he even got to the motel, I am certain that everyone has seen the photo's already but in case you missed it here it is again.

I know it was great to see Dale cut loose and have a big night out but I thought it was a bit rude of him to ask for a discount on his accommodation just because he spent the Friday night sleeping under the stars alongside Luke Dumbrell fish in downtown Tocumwal.

Dale was not the only one to disgrace him self, our seasoned veteran and elderly statesman Roger Powne featured several times in acts of ignorance or stupidity. As we all know Roger likes to follow the strict rules and etiquette on the golf course, so it was not unexpected when he cracked a wobbly and threw Stu Coops phone into the bunker when it rang while they were playing out on the golf course. But what Roger doesn't want to have mentioned is that despite his bad tempered antics and severe lecturing about how to behave on the golf course, he still managed to leave his own phone on while playing on Saturday and it rang right at the crucial time when Tony MacIssac was attempting to make a short putt for his first par for the day. Roger's phone distracted Tony so badly that he not only missed his Par putt, but also missed the next one back as well. If looks could kill then Tony would be serving a life sentence in Pentridge because he was not a happy man.

If that was not bad enough behavior, it might surprise a few people to hear that on Sunday during the Ambrose event, Roger who is reputed to be our best golfer failed to hit his drive past the ladies markers. In fact he actually failed to hit the ball past the men's markers, Roger's ball ricocheted off a fence post came back at him so he kicked the ball away in frustration while it was still in motion. It was at that point that Greg Breasley who was in shock from the barrage of vulgar swear words that come out of Rogers mouth turned to his playing partners and said "I would like to nominate Roger for the least improved for such a crappy shot, Leather Wedge for kicking the ball away with his foot while the ball is still rolling and with a potty mouth like that he deserves the title of Angry man as well." To add insult to injury, Phil Plane who was partnering Roger took him aside and said, "can you please concentrate and slow your swing down. This is a teams event and you need to get your name on the score card at least 6 times Roger, so far we have used seven of my drives and you have only contributed two."

One player who was having no trouble getting off the tee was Daniel De Marinis who in front of a busload of Japanese golf enthusiasts managed to hit a Happy Gilmore style drive 280 meters down the middle of the fairway to take out the longest drive competition. Daniels playing partners said it was the first time they had ever seen a Japanese person with their eyes fully open. Not to miss an opportunity Daniel went over to the stunned onlookers signed a couple of autographs and then booked them all in for a coaching clinic back in Melbourne at $150-00 per person. Daniel won all of the Nearest to pins on the Saturday missing only one of the four greens, so it's hard to believe that he didn't win the whole tournament as he sounds as though he was the in form player for the trip. Hopefully he will learn to get the ball into the hole with the new Putter in the raffle and then there will be no stopping him.

Fitzy was also hoping to improve his game after winning a new set of Maxifli Golf clubs as the major prize in the raffle. Unfortunately it didn't turn out quite as he expected, Fitzy's golf was horrible, so bad in fact that he is selling the clubs to the highest bidder. Anybody interested in buying a new set of clubs that have only ever been used for one round of golf then please contact Mark ASAP.

- Driver (hit 27 times including ball mark on top of head)
- 3 Wood (only hit 36 times slightly bent)
- 5 Wood (only hit 14 times)
- 3 Iron (slightly broken by accidental impact with knee cap)
- 4 Iron (only hit 22 times)
- 5 Iron (hit 19 times)
- 6 Iron (hit 72 times plus 4x air swings)
- 7 Iron (middle of club never been used)
- 8 Iron (hit 29 times)
- 9 Iron (includes free tree that it is wrapped around)
- Pitching Wedge (missing in Dam at Tocumwal)
- Sand Wedge (Doubles up as a shovel, had dug large but never hit a ball)
- Putter (hit 126 times)

Over the last few months it has been mentioned several times that it is always easy to tell if Higgysy has had a good day.

1) Firstly -his eyes are not their usual bloodshot red and his face isn't scrunched up like he's just sucked the arse end out of a rotten lemon and also

2) Secondly -he stays around for a drink with the boys after the game to collect his prize.

Darren turned in an absolute shocker on Saturday and finished in last place, so this month he was faced with either a long drive home with no legitimate reason to do so or otherwise come up with a bloody good excuse to get out of Beer Wench duty. Because he had already paid for his accommodation, he was left to concoct a mystery 6 hour stomach virus that could get him out of the beer wench duties but leave him fit enough to rekindle his stamina for the Sunday competition. I am not making any formal allegations but we did find an empty box of laxatives in the bathroom of Room 33 just minutes after Darren first claimed that he wasn't feeling 100%. Anyone who would be willing to put themselves through many hours of sitting on the toilet with the runs just to cheat the system and to avoid Beer Wench duty deserves the title of Leather Wedge so it was befitting that Darren won that title this the year, as well as the dozens of other awards that he took home on the weekend.

Nearest to the pin prizes were won by:

Saturday

2nd Hole Daniel DeMarinis
8th Hole (No one good enough)
10th Hole Daniel DeMarinis
15th Hole Daniel DeMarinis
Longest Drive Adam Cooper

Sunday

2nd Hole Steve Powne
8th Hole (No one good enough)
14th Hole Steve Powne
17th Hole Mark Sfiligoj
Longest Drive Daniel De Marinis (Happy Gilmore Style)

Reminder

The ball must be clearly on the CUT surface of the green or fairway to win NTP or longest drive. If it is not on the fairway it doesn't count.

Each player won 1 ball each.

For those people who want to protest that the winners were in a group of 3 it might be worth noting that under the official Ambrose system they would have played on a handicap of 14 instead of 11 and therefore would have finished with a Nett 64.

The new category of champion of champions was played off between all of the players who won a monthly competition during the year; the champion of champions is the player with the best score from all of the monthly winners who attended the golf trip. This competition was played off over 9 mystery holes on the Saturday competition with the player who scored the most stableford points taking out the title and the winner's jacket. Congratulations to Burnsie who was the overall winner.

Poor Brunto, who had the almost the highest number of entries (26 raffle tickets) with a 5.95% chance of having his name drawn out in the raffle failed to win a thing, whereas the big fella Nick Brennan who had 7 tickets and a 1.6% chance of winning took out the 2nd major prize and won a new Driver. Jamie has spent the last 3 days with the computer investigating the formulas and reprogramming the raffle program to make sure that the draw wasn't rigged so I do apologize but that is why it has taken so long to get the Blurb out to you.
