2013 GOLF TRIP

RICH RIVER

Fitzy will be chasing every one up for the money for the bus trip shortly. Based on expressions of interest the cost per head will be $50.

There will be two pick up points. One will be at Blackburn and the other will be a bit further out to the south east.

The Dream Team comp is all over bar the shouting and you can hear the shouting from the North Pole because unfortunately for all concerned the final will be played off between Mark Sfiligoj and the Supercoach himself- Fil Magill.

The supercoach made a clean sweep of the cash prize pool this year as he will not only win the grand final against himself but he also accumulated the most points for the year and posted the individual highest weekly score of 2379 in round 17.

SOS has already transferred his footy tips prize money over to his Golf Trip balance. He is now out in front by 3 tips in what seems to be unassailable lead. There are quite a few people in contention for the other prizes.

| Rank | Tipper | Total Score |

Yarrambat Golf Course Results August

After working tirelessly since March 2004, with more than 105 rounds of golf under my belt it is with heavy heart that I tender my resignation from chief organizer of the Sunday Leave Pass Social Club. From my understanding I have become the victim of the faceless men who have been rumour mongering behind the scenes and building up a faction within the organization for several months. Congratulation to SOS who actually masterminded the coup and evidently he has now publicly nominated himself to stand as my successor going forward. Apparently in my absence SOS sealed my fate by delivering a faultless event and produced a powerful speech and a golf ball presentation so captivating that it was worthy of a standing ovation. (I have never once got a standing ovation. (NEVER!!!!!!))

I could try to defend my position however according to my few remaining supporters the politics are just too deeply ingrained into the club for me to win it back. I thank my few remaining supporters for sticking with me, especially Brendan Seagrave who made a personal protest and turned up to the Yarrambat Golf Course blind stinking drunk. Allegedly, Brendan held a 24 hour wake on Saturday in my honour and he deliberately turned up to the golf course late and in a totally inebriated, incapacitated state to test SOS's people management skills and contingency planning ability. And Congratulations should go to Steve who handled the challenge admirably even when Brendan nearly backed over three of the faceless man in the car park when he tried to make a quick fire exit after the golf because he could bear to face the character assassination that was taking place in my absence. Either that or he couldn't handle the smell of being in the presence of any more alcohol and he needed to make a quick exodus before he threw up.

I was flattered and it is true testimony to his character and values that Rick Turcinovic was willing to walk off the golf course after he heard about the conspiracy plot. Rick walked off after completing only nine holes. He blamed his failure to finish on a knee injury he sustained while blasting a cracking drive down the first tee, but I know had circumstances been different and there was no undercurrent of persecution he would have posted a noteworthy score and featured high up in the top 10 this month.

Big Ball Breasley was another of my supporters who has made the ultimate sacrifice for his fallen leader. Greg has vowed to empty all of his Sunday Leave Pass golf balls out of his golf bag as a protest against SOS taking over the top job. Over the years Greg has won a collection of balls that he will now need to get rid of, however he did a fine job this month, lessening his load by losing balls on the 2nd, 9th, 11th, 12th and then three golf balls in a row on the Par 3, 16th hole.

As for SOS and his band of merciless men it was not all plain sailing. SOS had a tough day with the putter and has already caused the club to be banned from returning to Yan Yean after writing a scathing letter to the pro-shop and the Yarrambat golf club president. According to Steve the greens were inconsistent, unplayable, because they were running at variable speeds and therefore impossible to read. With 38 putts, his worst for the year perhaps he has a good case to show. Although Gerard MacIsaac (putting extraordinaire) whisked around the greens in just 30 putts so it couldn't have been too difficult.

SOS also had an issue with the native vegetation especially on the 17th hole when he sprayed his drive out in to the trees on the right. Hitting into a strong breeze Steve and all three of his playing partners finished with their golf balls in the same general area. After a lengthy search the only ball not to be located was Steve's Titleist 2. Only after SOS found his ball, did he announce that everyone could play on. When asked where his ball was SOS said "I am in the Forkin tree." "What do you mean you are in the Forkin tree?" "I am in the fork in the tree." SOS's ball had landed between two branches some 1&1/2 meters off the ground. Greg Breasley dared him to play it from where it lies "like his predecessor would have done" but instead SOS took the safe option and took an unplayable lie penalty stroke and finished the hole with little damage to his club or scorecard.

Peter Hutson suffered a similar fate and he was very disappointed when his ball landed in the junction of two trunks at the base of a tree and he was forced to also take an unplayable penalty stroke.

However that was not the biggest disappointment for Peter for the Yarrambat round. He was more devastated when he was beaten for the longest drive on the 10th hole. Peter actually hit his best ever drive smashing his driver down the middle of the fairway. Peter had out muscled Mick Harper and Gerard MacIsaac to get his name on the marker so he watched back anxiously as Steve O'Sullivan and Big Ball Breasley made their best efforts to reign in his drive. Once that group of big hitters failed to beat his marker it was expected that Peter would putt out, move on and play down the next hole. Not so, Peter sat at the back of the green and watched on as the following group teed off. It wasn't until the third member Greg Andrews (alias Stinky) got a huge bounce off what appeared to be the concrete grounds keeper's path and the extra momentum he received off the hard surface meant the ball rolled further than Pete's longest drive marker. It was a stroke of luck for all concerned because otherwise he would have stayed at the back of the green and watched the next group coming through.

When confronted about why he stayed around to watch the two groups behind him try and out drive his ball and help up play around the entire golf course. Peter would not come up with a reasonable explanation. All he came up with was the same four words over and over again. "I bought a jeep."

Peter's new Jeep Cherokee with all of its modern conveniences (including a heated steering wheel) may have come in handy and it wouldn't be surprising if it even had a gadget that could help to read the undulations on the sloping fast running greens at Yarrambat. Perhaps Ron Parsons may also need to "Buy a Jeep" because he had no clue how to put on the difficult Yan Yean landscape. Ron had his worst ever putting round, (49 putts) he racked up $10 worth of fines for his 5x four putt greens and also had five 3x putts to really blow out his score.

The only hole which Ron managed to stand over his putter with any sense of confidence was the Par 3 eighth hole when he came within 2 inches of winning a free day on the booze with Evergreen Winery tours. Ron struck is five iron with absolute precision and it flew effortlessly over the lake and past the deep bunker protecting the flag. His ball pitched 10 feet before the cup and then released towards the hole, breaking slightly left to right. The ball came to rest just under the pin and it was a simple tap in for birdie and 5 skins with his score of 2 for 5 stableford points and a very close attempt to scoring a hole in one.

As the year drags on our scores seem to be getting worse. This month no players were within reach of playing close to their handicap. Big Mick was the best of a bad batch. He won on a count back with a Nett score of 76. Tony Grasso Junior was the recipient of 14 championship points for his second place finish but he will be having nightmares about each of the 12x three putt greens which any one of them can be credited to costing him a first place finish.

Carl Schulze made the trip all the way down from Bright worth his while. As he does every time he plays with the Sunday Leave Pass Social Club, Carl finished in the top three and was also tied with Mick Harper but lost on a countback having scored less stableford points than Tony Junior and Mick on the back nine.

Gerard MacIsaac has extended his lead at the top of the Seasons Championship Points tally with a fourth place finish and with Greg Breasley posting disappointing scores over the last couple of months it has opened up the 2nd spot for Stu Coops who finished in 6th place this month albeit one day later than the rest of the field.

Despite not being able to talk, walk or remain focused on the single golf ball spinning around in front of him, Brendan Seagrave might get a shock to discover he finished the day in fifth spot. It could be an achievement worthy of a celebratory drink except that from the stories I have heard about how hung-over and green he was looking on Sunday morning there is a good chance that he will be off the booze for a few weeks at least.

The ball must be clearly on the CUT surface of the green or fairway to win NTP or longest drive. If it is not on the fairway it doesn't count.

Each player won 1 ball each.

Golf Balls are owed to the following people:

| | | |
|-----------------|----|--|
| Mick Harper | x3 | Winner at Yarrambat |
| Gerard MacIsaac | x3 | Winner at Werribee Park |
| Tony Grasso | x1 | NTP 4 th hole at Rosebud |
| Dale Robinson | x1 | NTP 15 th hole at Werribee Park |

Just a reminder that for every round you play you are awarded a raffle ticket to go towards the end of year raffle, then extra tickets are issued if you wear the official club shirt plus extra tickets can also be won by winning a hole in the monthly skins competition.

“SKINS” were distributed to those players good enough to win a hole outright. If more than 1 player got the lowest score on a hole it is Jackpotted until an outright winner occurs. Ron Parson just missed scoring a hole in one but collected the biggest bag of skins on the 8th hole. Geoff Cooper won a couple of holes including a three hole jackpot.

Brendan Seagrave 0.2 shots for his efforts this month despite being 0.05 when he arrived at the golf course. Carl Schulze has played his fifth round with the club and was switched to the Slope handicapping system. In doing so his handicap has been adjusted from 21.4 to 17.6 which should make it a bit tougher for the next time he decides to play. Tony junior gets a small trim but if ever he learns to put he will cop a major adjustment. Dale and Tony senior have been gifted back at least half a shot and Peter Hutson goes out just a shade for the challenge ahead next month at Kingston Links.

New Handicaps are as follows:

BOLD RED NUMBERS- refer to players whose handicap has gone out

BOLD GREEN NUMBERS- refer to players whose handicap has come in BOLD BLACK NUMBERS- refer to players whose handicap has remained unchanged
NON BOLD NUMBERS- refer to players who didn't play this month so handicap has not changed
