

SUNDAY LEAVE PASS 2020

Before we get into the final results for the 2020 Sunday Leave Pass season and the end of year golf trip. Please make sure you let us know as early as possible if you will continue playing with the Sunday Leave Pass social club in the new year and even better confirm your status so we know if you are likely to be a definite starter in January. With the increased popularity of golf and strong demand for tee times post COVID 19 we are expecting bigger attendances within our group membership each month and we have only booked for a limited number of spaces each month. Until we get a feel for how many current player's we will have taking up a regular spot we will keep our new memberships intake on hold. We understand that once word gets out that the bloke who had the definition of a score of ten or more ("a Newell") in golf named after him, was able to win the Champion of Champions trophy and get a year's supply of free beer, every casual golf hacker will be wanting to join in on the action, however please don't recruit any extra new players, as it sounds as though the numbers will be up next year anyway.

A copy of the fixture has been posted on the Sunday Leave Pass Website. Current Season 2021 – Sunday Leave Pass and it has also been included at the end of the golf trip results blurb. You are now able to download the entire fixture onto your mobile phone calendar and you will soon have the ability to confirm your status online via the new Sunday Leave Pass website.

If you haven't already can you please let us know if you are expecting to play next year, we have booked for a maximum of 36 players, but we need a more accurate guide on who we should expect to play regularly in 2021? If we don't hear or receive a response from you, in order to clean up the current data base we will remove your details from the distribution list unless you specifically request otherwise.

Final results for Sunday Leave Pass Social Club 2020

Proudly presented to you by our Sponsor's for the 2020 season.

The House of Golf.
Ringwood

Special thanks to our golf specialty store The House of Golf. who have featured as a major Sunday Leave Pass Social club sponsor again in 2020. They have generously donated the monthly winner prize each month and have been very generous in looking after our members within store purchase discounts. We look forward to a good working relationship with them in the years to come. As part of the 2021 fixture we hope to be running a couple more social nights at the The House of Golf. in Ringwood using the virtual golf simulators. Please check out their website link The House of Golf. from the SLP website Sponsors – Sunday Leave Pass and consider them for any golf purchases you make over the Christmas period. A few of our team event winners were all rewarded with X golf virtual golf simulator vouchers to use over the summer.

We would also like to make special mention to say thanks to Dale Robinson who has been a long-term supporter, player and sponsor via DNR print of the Sunday Leave Pass Social Club. Dale is a 100plus game veteran and two times club seasons champion, 2x Golf trip Beer Wench and an important member of the club.

It's always important to remember who your sponsors within the social club are and to give them a referral or utilize their services if and when the opportunity ever arises. Dale has had an ongoing gentlemen's agreement with Sunday Leave Pass social club where any sales he receives via Sunday Leave Pass club members or SLP contacts he is willing to kick a percentage of the sale value back to the social club directly.

Cheap Printing check out what's available don't forget to contact Dale if you need any Printing supplies for 2021. Please remember to support the guys in the club every chance that you get.

The Sunday Leave Pass Social Club has now been in action for over 16 years and over that time we have just about seen it all. Just about anything that could possibly happen out on the golf course good or bad has at one time or another happened within the social group. We have had air swings, dead birds, triple hits, 9 putts, scores of 24 on a single hole, players get hit by wayward golf balls, thrown clubs, balls hit backwards, damaged cars, you name it and someone within the Sunday Leave Pass Social Club group has done it. About the only thing missing from our highlights and low lights portfolio is that illusive HOLE IN ONE.

We are looking for a sponsor to take over from Evergreen Winery tours as the hole in one sponsor. Unfortunately, Geoff Cooper sold out of his winery tour business, so we need someone else new to offer an incentive as the "hole in one prize" for the next season. It was a very cheap sponsorship for Geoff who was able to get all of the free advertising without ever having to dip into his pocket to make good with his financial commitment.

We are hoping some other members might be able to get involved and do some sort of sponsorship if the opportunity arises. We are happy to plug your product or promote your business in return for some sort of commitment to the finance or operation of Social Club.

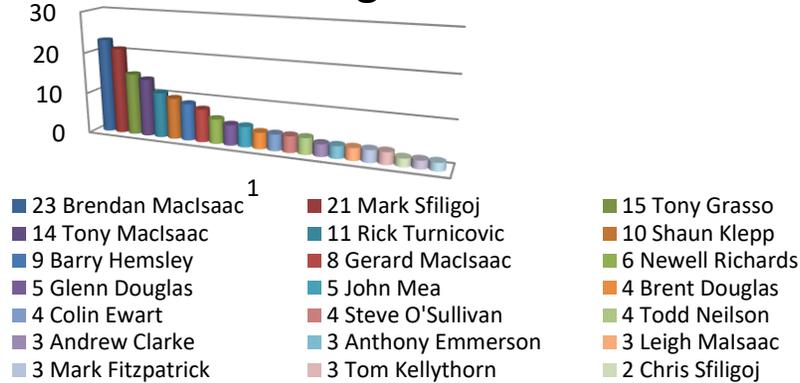

Please let me know if there is anything you can do to get involved.

2020 Players Choice Awards

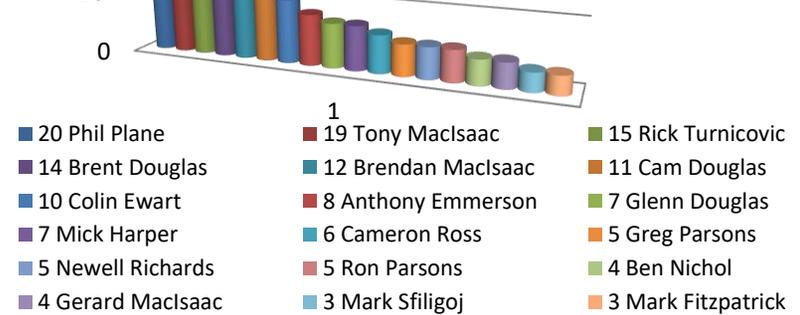

Thanks to all those guys who voted in the Sunday Leave Pass Players choice awards surveys, some of the voting was very close and the spread of nominations was equally distributed amongst a significant proportion of the field. Therefore, every vote was very important. Congratulations to all the winners who have now become immortalized in the social club archives as significant contributor to the Sunday Leave Pass history. <http://www.sundayleavepass.com/award-winners-hall-of-fame/>

GOLF TRIP 2020

It is always difficult to come up with some good content for the Golf Trip blurb, although so much happens over the course of the three days on tour, for some reason when it comes to recalling the facts and stories it is always a fuzzy blur in the back of the brains memory bank. So special thanks to all of the guys who sent through their photos from the weekend as they will make up the majority of the newsletter. Without those images how would I ever have remembered the time when Rob Underwood lost his golf ball when it was stolen by one of the local wildlife.

Undies had hit his ball into the rough on the 12th hole and when he went over to retrieve it he was confronted by a Bearded dragon which had taken a shining to the round white golf ball which it had decided must have looked like a delicious tasting egg. When Undies approached the lizard it became aggressive, there was no way he was going to be able to take his stance with the lizard staring him down and then when Rob waved his golf club around the lizard to try to shoo it away, the Bearded Dragon puffed up it's neck and showed it's full neck frills as it defended its prize.

In the end Undies opted to take free relief from the dangerous animal and chose to play a new golf ball, while the lizard made his golf ball disappear, an activity which undies was doing regularly anyway.

There was ample wild life around the golf course, kangaroos lazed along the fairways, a goanna (Lace Monitor) was seen climbing a tree, Pelicans watched on casually as golf ball after golf ball disappeared into their home, the lake along the green on the first hole and there were plenty of Birdies and even an eagle on the score card for the two ball Ambrose teams event.

Probably the strangest looking creature seen out on the fairways was the new look Barry Hemsley who has metamorphosized into a character called Engywook from the movie the Never-ending story. It seems Barry has not shaved since COVID-19 hit back in March, so he is now carrying a food storage compartment under his chin which even Saint Nick would be proud of. Although there are certain similarities between Barry's new look and Santa, according to the Barmaid at the Edwards River hotel he is a dead ringer, in fact the perfect doppelganger for a character in her favorite movie.

ENGYWOOK- Neverending Story.

Barry was not the only Doppelganger identified on the golf trip. Despite the pouring rain and cold weather, Shane Cumming decide it was a good idea to go for a swim in the pool. He had packed his togs after all. As soon as he hit the water there were a few guys who noticed his likeness as a doppelganger to a different Hollywood character. Willy from the move Free Willy.

Although he doesn't look anything like the character from the movie, Andrew Clarke was still able to put on an Oscar winning performance for his impersonation of the lead star in the classic film "Sleeping Beauty". Clarke is famous for his ability to sleep in the car from pick up to drop off and on this year's trip he did not disappoint.

It is such a shame Andrew spends so much time with eyes closed and his mouth closed, because when he is awake, he comes up with all sorts of classic comments and gems of wisdom. In one of his rare moments of consciousness Andrew was able to tell us how fantastic his unique putting style is. For those who haven't seen him putting, he stands with his body at a 45-degree angle to the target and with his back leg 1.2 meters behind the front leg. He looks more like a rugby kicker than a golfer setting up for a putt, however interestingly he somehow manages to hole more putts than he misses. When he was challenged about his putting technique, he was very quick to let it be known that his style is the best there is and all of the pro's on tour would be using it, were it not for the fact that he has a patent over the technique which prevents them from doing so. There may be something in his form though since he when combined with Mick Harper in the Ambrose competition the team was able to go the full 18 holes at 3 under par which included an eagle, two birdies and just a single bogie.

Greg Parsons might well consider buying the license to use Andrews putting technique, especially since his career putting average is 38.91 putts per round. Andrew Averages 34.85 so that would possibly improve his score automatically by 4 strokes per game. Greg is the only player who we have on record to have actually managed to have an air-swing while making a putting stroke. Greg was on the verge of tapping in for a three putt on the 9th green when he somehow missed the ball completely and finished up with an extra stroke on the score card for making a genuine attempt at a putt but missing the ball.

The 9th Hole may have had some mystical magic powers which made putting difficult, Jamie Brunton nearly putted from on the green to off the green, according to the statistics 15 of the 29 players three putted the hole and even Barry Hemsley missed a birdie put from 5 inches away after nearly holing his 6 iron from 150 meters out, Barry was able to lay claim to the Nearest to pin 2nd shot prize but missed the chance for a tap in birdie for 5 Stableford points.

The 9th hole was the demise of several rounds, most importantly it was one of the mystery random holes used in the Champion of Champions competition and also in the battle of the beer wenchers. This was devastating outcome for Greg and Ron Parsons who both racked up big numbers on the hole. Ron bounced from bunker to bunker and then back again as his quest for the blue jacket disappeared before his teary eyes. By the time he finally finished the 9th hole Ron had racked up a Newell and a half (score of 15) and had dropped out of contention for the Champion of Champions title. Although Greg did not have a 15 written on the scorecard he was no better off, he too had his second Newell for the day on the ninth hole and that all but eliminated his chance at winning the Free Drinks prize in 2021.

The ninth hole also got the better of Rob Underwood (Newell) and even Andrew Clarke went from the greenside bunker for 2 shots to in the hole for 9. At 285 meters and a drivable par 4 this hole certainly bared its teeth and made our golfers work for their scores. On Friday during their practice rounds both Mick Harper and Stu Coops drove the green and made 2 putt Birdies but then when the scoring counted, they were a long way off the mark. The ninth hole played on average nearly 2.5 strokes above par, proving it was a challenging hole despite its length.

With a score of 70 strokes on the front nine Greg Parsons was a shattered mess, he was resigned to the reality of being the 2020 beer wench. His day was miserable and his demeanor was dour, that was until he ran into Rick and discovered that Rick had shot a 69 on the front nine. It was also obvious by the screams resonating around the fairways that Rick was carrying his poor form after the turn as well. Greg was suddenly reinvigorated and ramped up his game improving by 15 strokes on the back nine holes whereas Rick only improved by 7, he shot a 62 on the back nine and consequently found himself sitting at the very bottom of the points distribution once all of the scores were submitted. Greg has never had a bigger smile on his face, as did Stu Cooper and Todd Neilson who had conceded to defeat and headed to the fridge at the end of the 12th hole to get some beers ready to drown his sorrows. Stu didn't reach for the liquor cabinet instead he went straight to the medicine cabinet, After playing 54 holes in the 3 days leading up to the golf trip Stu was trying to justify his poor play by claiming to have a bad back. We all know it wasn't the case and he was simply looking for an excuse to validate his 27th place finish.

Greg Parsons, never been happier to hear Rick had had a shocker.

Stu Coops pretending to have a bad back as excuse for poor golf.

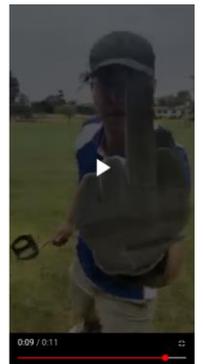

Bad back, bad play or bad luck? Stu's drive on 13th hole

Tom Kellythorn, in the thornbush. Tough lie on what was a tough day.

Stu's day got progressively worse, the more strokes he racked up the more painful his back felt and the more he justified his nominations as the 2020 bushwhacker became, by the time he sprayed his golf ball across the 12th fairway and embedded his ball into the bark of a tree trunk from the 13th tee he had all but conceded he was destined to be serving the drinks on Saturday night. It wasn't until he ran into Mick Harper while looking for a ball on the 15th fairway while playing the 14th hole that the good news had reached him and he was able to relax a little when then the grapevine announced how badly Greg and Rick had performed on the front nine. Link to Stu's Video.

Tom Kellythorn also had his own difficulties keeping the ball in play and his @r$e out of the beer wench dress for back to back golf trips. Since he won the Season Championship trophy in 2018 it has been a rapid fall from grace. Although he showed some glimpses of his former skills, including a chip in from off the green on the 15th hole, it was more evident as to where Toms game was currently at when he whiffed at the ball and it only just fell off the tee and didn't even get passed the white markers let alone the ladies tees. Tom found himself in the thorn bushes after an errant drive rolled straight to the bottom of the tree trunk. Luckily for all of us Tom's good mate was right by Toms side to capture his demise on film but he was in one way lucky that he was able to play a good shot considering the predicament he was in and the fact that whatever happened was going to be immortalized on film. Click on image to view the video

Cam Ross kept his golf ball well and truly away from the trees, in fact while playing the 11th hole the only thing that was likely to obstruct his ball was the Blue Nissan Patrol which was parked in the carport of the Apartment number 3B. Cam accidentally overshot the green by nearly 90meters and that was only because the ball bounced off the 4x4 car tyre or else who knows where it may have finished up.

Perhaps Cam had an ulterior motive for his long walk out into the accommodation blocks, he may have been seeking out the beautiful lady who had been given the keys to the same room as the one Cam had originally been allocated. When we arrived at Barham on Friday afternoon the hotel had totally stuffed up the rooming list. Ronnie Parsons was given the keys to Room 3 and when he went to go into the apartment, he quickly discovered that his $350 golf trip investment included a 30-year-old well-endowed live-in maid servant. The first thing Ronnie saw as he entered what he believed was to be his room was a clothesline full of size 14DD bras and some silky G-string negligée. The lady jumped out of her shower and hastily removed Ronnie from the room, although he continued banging on the door, insisted he wanted to come in and share the room because he had been given a key. Ronnie even offered to pay her a little bit extra cash if she would let him stay in the room with her. When Cam heard about Ron's encounter, it was little wonder he was keen to check out the situation and possibly get a bed in Room 3B especially since that was the room he had been promised in the first place.

Rick Turcinovic discovered that he had also been allocated a random bed buddy, however just like everything else for the weekend he wasn't quite as lucky as the others. When Rick arrived at what he thought was meant to be his room he walked in on a room full of clothing, but rather than it being panties and bra tops he was dealing with 27 freshly ironed business shirts which belonged to the newly appointed Clubarham CEO. Needless to say, Rick was very quick to vacate the room and unlike Ronnie there was no begging and pleading to see if he could stay.

Mick Harper had one of the local girls begging and pleading for him to stay. Obviously, the locked borders of the COVID-19 crisis has left the NSW ladies short on good quality Victorian fellas and they have been starved for entertainment after a 150-day man drought. Poor Mick was nearly molested when he jumped on the courtesy bus which was already occupied by a couple of the local girls who had just been booted out of the pub for being drunk and disorderly. As soon as Mick boarded the bus it was obvious, he was in trouble. There were 8 men in the bus and the first question that the girls asked them all was how many of you are divorced. The next thing they did was turn to Mick and say, “Are you divorced cos you’re a “DILTF”. Mick was very composed and was quick to put her in place, Mick told her he appreciated the offer but told her he was gay and advised her how his boyfriend would not be happy if he cheated on him. This put her in her place but she still said “just my luck the only good looking bloke on the bus and the DILTF is not even looking for action,” she gave upon her quest for companionship but not before she lifted her shirt and gave the entire bus an eye full of cleavage and jiggly bits.

Brendan MacIsaac would have been wishing he had of taken his rangefinder on the bus with him because he would have gotten a much closer view of the peep show, especially since his rangefinder has an extra powerful zoom lens. Evidently Brendan was a little bit lost by his yardages once he started using his new rangefinder because it makes everything look much closer than it actually is. According to some of his playing partners, having hit his drive 33 meters and then laying up with his second shot, Brendan was standing in the middle of the fairway with just under 290 meters left to get to the flag on the 350 meters hole according to the display on his new toy. Given that the group in front of him were still putting on the green, Brendan stood and waited for the green to clear before he pulled out his 5 iron. Perhaps he thought he should wait just in case he got onto it and injured someone while hitting up on them. Fortunately, for the rest of the Brendan’s playing partners the guys in front vacated the green very quickly but there was never any chance of him causing serious injury because after Brendan smashed his 5 iron green-bound, once the ball finally came to rest his rangefinder said he only had another 273 meters left to get to the pin.

Luckily Brendan is not an angry man or else there may have been some serious carnage out on the fairways, not quite the same for Rick Turcinovic who has shown time and time again why he is a worthy candidate for the players choice Angry Man award each year. Obviously, Rick was a bit upset that he was out polled by the Supercoach especially since Mark accrued his 30 votes despite only playing 4 games for the season. There was little doubt about Ricks intentions for 2021. He left the tee marker on the 18th green looking a little bit worse for wear after a less than satisfactory shot and it is best not to mention the fate of his 7 iron after he launched it down the fairway.

The golf trip was fun for all. It is always a good way to catch up with a group of mates, drink beer and have a little bit of exercise in between the laughs and camaraderie.

The Barham course was a majestic setting to play, the course was awesome, pure fairways, long sweeping golf holes, hundreds of strategically placed bunkers and let us not mention the water hazards, most of which were hidden out of site until it was all too late and you had hit your ball into them. There was no questioning the fact that the golf course was hard and the scores reflected it, although I think even those of us who landed at the back end of the field would still say it was a great golf course, just a little bit long and hard. The layout was always interesting especially when it came to the long Par 3 holes, especially the 15th hole which at 190 meters up hill and into the wind meant most of us could not even get there with the driver off the tee.

The Par 4 fifth hole had to be the fan favorite, with a gigantic bunker protecting the entire width of the elevate green was challenge enough, but with the putting surface having a false front meaning that any ball not far enough would roll back off the green and into the bunker which was aptly named Gallipoli.

According to Jamie Brunton, it should come with an asterisk because of the COVID-19 shutdown and the fact that we only played half the season, however Steve O’Sullivan has still claimed his first ever annual points championship title. There were only two candidates left in contention by the time we took to the fairways at Barham on Saturday morning although given that the one person challenging him was Mick Harper it was inevitable that SOS would win the trophy and in doing so hand the big poof yet another seat in the Bridesmaids shower.

Congratulations to Steve O’ Sullivan who after ten years of chasing the coveted title, he has finally won the points championship by a very convincing 10-point margin. SOS finished in 16th place on Saturday for a return of only 1 point therefore he had opened up the door for Mick to have a chance to win back to back titles, however Mick failed to finish in the top 3 rankings which was what was required in order for him to accrue enough points to jump to the top of the leaderboard.

Seasons Championship winners.

2010 Gerard Maclsaac	114pts to Mick	112pts
2011 Dale Robinson	135pts to Mick	93pts
2012 Tony Grasso Snr	109pts to Mick	98pts
2015 Dale Robinson	101pts to Mick	96pts
2016 Andrew Clarke	105pts to Mick	102pts
2018 Wayne James	97pts to Mick	93pts
2019 Mick Harper	103pts to SOS	102pts
2020 Steve O' Sullivan	76pts to Mick	66pts

And didn’t SOS enjoy his win, he did a tour of all the tables to make sure he was congratulated by all 30 members of the group and to remind them that he was the Annual Points champion without even winning a monthly title. In truth SOS has been a regular feature at the top of the points leaderboard ladder despite not winning a monthly title since 2017.

It is fair to say SOS was a very happy man, he had a smile from ear to ear, and he jumped into every photo whenever a camera was getting ready to take a shot. Steve celebrated with conviction and by the time we finally got into the Barham RSL Club at 830pm to sat down for dinner he was speaking in the same language as Stevie Powne does on the golf trips. They were both able to have a complete conversation in fluent slurrish which no one else in the group could possibly understand a word of.

Unlike SOS, Newell was much more reserved in his celebrations, Newell completed the perfect Steven Bradbury finish and coasted into the Champion of Champions title by steering safely past the finish line while all of the other competitors in contention crashed and burned around the golf course.

Newell won the December title with a very steady round of golf, having played 72 holes of golf on his pre-golf trip adventure, Newell's golf swing was primed and ready to thrive. On Saturday morning Newell shot 3 strokes better than his handicap, Nett 70 to win the monthly title by 3 strokes. In winning the December round he therefore qualified to compete for the champion of champions title, and given that three of his 5 competitors shot a Newell (score of 10 or more) on at least one of the mystery holes, he was a clear favorite to win despite his score being calculated over only 8 holes compared to the other players who used 9 holes.

Whereas SOS was making toasts and raising a glass to celebrate his victory, Newell hardly even lifted a finger. We are not sure if it is just the modesty of his character or whether it was just because the jacket looked so big on him that he didn't have the strength to raise his arms.

Shane Cumming had too much weight on his shoulders, Poor cider was left holding the bag literally and as he tried to carry two sets of golf clubs up to the proshop at the same time, it all became wee bit too difficult for the usually mild mannered left hander. If ever you were going to see the ever smiling, unflappable fella losing his cool Sunday morning was going to be the time to see it.

After 23 beers the previous night and then getting no sleep because he was sharing a room with an inexhaustible, chainsaw snoring bed buddy, Shane was already at breaking point. So, when he was left try to cart his partners clubs and they started spilling allover the walkway he was ready to explode.

Having been partnered with SOS for the day they were both earmarked as the odds-on favorites to win the Ambrose teams trophy. Unfortunately, the day started in tatters and then it got worse from there. The famous saying "There is no I in team" can be expanded out to include "There is no I in team nor is there an SOS" which is quite appropriate when you think that the one thing Cider needed more than anything else on Sunday was help and sadly his partner was never around to give him a hand.

Once he put on the Beer Wench dress Rick Turcinovic had no shortage of friends.

Rick was a trooper with his drink service and even carried out his role out on to the golf course on Sunday Morning, Rick wore the dress for 18 holes and he has even told his beloved wife Ruthy that he is obligated to wear the dress at any function wear a Sunday Leave Pass member is in attendance.

No doubt he will be organizing regular catch ups with the Robinson and MacIsaac families during 2021.

Winners are grinners and it should be said that Newell was grinning just as wide as SOS and interestingly even Rick was, when he was awarded his shield and jacket after being crowned the 2020 Champion of Champions Newell couldn't help but do a little happy dance. Newell was a last minute qualifier to join the other five players competing for the Champion of Champions title, having won his qualifying entry at the golf trip and even the one hole handicap it could not prevent him from getting his hands on the best prize Sunday Leave Pass has to offer.

The Champion of Champions competition was played off between all of the players who won a monthly competition during the year; the champion of champions is the player who has the best score from all of the monthly winners who attended the golf trip. This competition was played off over 9 mystery holes on the Saturday competition with the player who scored the most stableford points taking out the title and adorned the coveted winner's jacket. Obviously, as the winner of the December title Newell had automatically had a good score and therefore, he was handicapped accordingly. History says very few Sunday winners have been able to claim the title due to the handicapping process. Whichever way you look at it, on this occasion Newell managed to play a few good holes in the correct place and at the end of the day his 18 Stableford points from only 8 holes was good enough to win him the title. Newell can credit his win to the par he made on the 18th hole and probably the fact that Egg (Anthony Emmerson) score a Newell on the 2nd hole also helped as the blow out on the 2nd hole cost him the 3 extra stableford points Egg needed to boost his score to get to the front of the field.

Evidently Newells greatest challenge in competing for the coveted Beer wench jacket was working out how to put the thing on, In the end he needed the assistance of last years winner Wayne James who was able to take him through the process, however even when he finally got it right it was way to big for him. Hopefully 50 bears in 12 rounds will help him to add the extra kilo's needed to fit snugly into the SLP Champion of Champions jacket.

Newell will be able to reap the long-term benefits for his Champion of Champions status. Next year as the Champion of Champions Newell will be able to ask any Sunday Leave Pass member to buy him a drink, it is however limited to him only receiving one drink per member for the year (beer or soft or bourbon if he pays the extra $2 price difference) for the entire season and it can only be claimed if he is wearing the Champion of Champion jacket at the time.

This of course is excluding new or any members who didn't play at least one game in season 2020 but it is also not exclusive to those who attended the golf trip. So, to put it simply if you played at least one round of golf this year then Newell has the power to hit you up for a free drink at some point next year. If he manages himself correctly, he should be looking at up to 50 free beers or soft drinks over the next 12 months. Now that is a prize worth aspiring for. The other condition is that Newell must be the person who consumes the drink meaning he cannot use his power to buy beverages for anyone else and the drink must be opened and consumed at the time of purchase. They can not be used as takeaways to keep in the fridge to offer to guests at a dinner party. Tight wad nominee.

The other covenant is if Newell has previously tapped you on the shoulder and he accidentally asks you for another free drink then he will be penalized, and he will be obligated to buy you a drink instead. Not that there will be much chance of it happening especially since Newell has already requested a list of names, so he can get a spreadsheet and debt ledger made up and his primary target is to hit up all the non-regular players first.

Back in 2018 we introduced a new Sunday Leave Pass board event. It was decided that it wasn't fair to give all of the prestige to the monthly winners, especially since we now make such a big thing out of the person who is crowned as the Beer Wench each month. Therefore, we introduced a competition in the same format as the Champion of champions however called it the Beer Wench of Beer Wenchies title where all of the last place finishers play off to be the worst of the worst. The competition was run over the same random holes as the champion of champions except the monthly title holders only used the scores from 8 of the holes and the golf trip Beer Wench takes his score from 9 holes.

Congratulations to Rick Turcinovic who was the winner of this year's event as well as the runner up.

Ranking	1	2	3	4	5	6

Points	7 points (8 holes)	10 points (9 holes)	11 points (8 holes)	14 points (8 holes)	16 points (8 holes)	17 points (8 holes)

Interestingly there were less Newell's on the scorecards of the players in the battle of the beer wenches than there were from those who were playing off as supposedly the best of the best.

This year we trialed the 100% random group allocations for the Beer and Berrocca shield. It seems as though the consensus from the majority, (excluding the odd group) was that the handicapping system worked reasonably well, the handicap spread was more diverse however the final scores were still very close. It should be noted however that a vote has been passed to remove the current title holders from the random name draw for the following year in order to allow the winning group Andrew Clarke and Mick Harper the opportunity to defend their championship title.

The results for the Saturday round were critical especially since the seasons championship points winner was to be determined based on the outcome, plus the determination of the champion of champions and beer wench of beer wench were finalized on this game. Newell Richards is starting to prove himself as one of golf trip masters, as he won last year and again in 2020 and therefore joins an exclusive group including Dale Robinson and David Burns as multiple golf trip title holders.

Winner for the day Newell Richards Won House of Golf Voucher
Winner of the "BEER WENCH" award was Rick Turcinovic who shot the worst round for the day.

Winner for the Champion of Champions award was Newell Richards
Winner for the Beer Wench of Beer Wench award was Rick Turcinovic

This year is the first time in 16 years that both the winner and loser of the monthly title also were both crowned as Champion of Champions and Beer Wench.

Congratulations to SOS who has finally finished on top of the points championship leaderboard.

Congratulations to Rick who did a fantastic job as fine master this year, despite missing five rounds over the duration of the season he still managed to have collected more money in the kitty than we were able to drink on Saturday night. You would have expected Rick to be regretting having collected so many fines during the year especially since he ended up Beer wench and that means the more money in the purse the more trips he had to make to the bar. We will use some of the excess fine money to buy drinks and food at our first The House of Golf. virtual golf social event next season. Rick will continue The challenge for Rick his role next year as he wants the pleasure of being able to stand over and shake the coins out of the pockets of those who featured prominently in the voting for the Tight Wad award.

Winners are grinners

The Social club runs as a neutral organization and all of the money we raise each year is spent on prizes and we start each year with basically a zero $$$$ bank balance. As was to be expected the fine jar kitty was drunk almost drunken dry in the early hours of Sunday morning although there was a couple of hundred dollars which will be filed away to be used for BBQ's and stock purchases at the start of the new season. All of the proceeds of the social club activities which includes green fees, and beverage & merchandise sales were invested in the form of prizes for the end of year trip and the raffle draw. In total we had more than $3500 worth of prizes to give away. The spoils were spread over many of our members.

The raffle is conducted by issuing every player a ticket for each round of golf that they play over the course of the year. If a player wears the Sunday Leave Pass Club shirt to the round, they are given a second raffle ticket. We also run an 18x hole skins competition where every hole is worth one raffle ticket and a player wins raffle tickets for scoring a better stableford score than the rest of the field. In the skins competition whenever 2 or more players have the best score on a hole the raffle tickets carry over and jackpot until a unique hole-winner is achieved. Some players had some significant Jackpots through the year where they won 6 or more skins at the one time. This dramatically increases the number of raffle tickets a player has but at the end of the day the raffle all comes down to chance.

As a matter of fairness, a player is only entitled to take home one prize no matter how many times their name is drawn in the raffle. A player is entitled to upgrade to a better prize if their name comes out again and the lesser prize is redrawn. In order to qualify for the Major Prizes a player must have played at least 6 rounds with the club or be in attendance at the Golf Trip to claim the prize.

Congratulations to all of the winners.
