

SUNDAY LEAVE PASS 2021

Before we get into the final results for the 2021 Sunday Leave Pass season and the end of year golf trip. Please make sure you let us know as early as possible if you will continue playing with the Sunday Leave Pass social club in the new year and even better confirm your status so we know if you are likely to be a definite starter in January. With the increased popularity of golf and strong demand for tee times post COVID 19 we are expecting bigger attendances within our group membership each month and we have only booked for a limited number of spaces each month. Until we get a feel for how many current player's we will have taken up a regular spot we will keep our new memberships intake on hold. Please don't recruit any extra new players, as it sounds as though the numbers will be up next year anyway.

A copy of the fixture has been posted on the Sunday Leave Pass Website. Current Season 2022 – Sunday Leave Pass and it has also been included at the end of the golf trip results blurb. You are now able to download the entire fixture onto your mobile phone calendar.

If you haven't already done so, can you please let us know if you are expecting to play next year, we have booked for a maximum of 36 players, but we need a more accurate guide on who we should expect to play regularly in 2022? If we don't hear or receive a response from you, in order to clean up the current data base we will remove your details from the distribution list unless you specifically request otherwise.

Final results for Sunday Leave Pass Social Club 2021

Proudly presented to you by our Sponsors for the 2021 season.

The House of Golf.
Ringwood

Special thanks to our golf specialty store The House of Golf. who have featured as a major Sunday Leave Pass Social club sponsor again in 2021. They have generously donated the monthly winner prize each month and have been very generous in looking after our members within store purchase discounts. We look forward to a good working relationship with them in the years to come. As part of the 2022 fixture, we hope to be running a couple more social nights at the The House of Golf. in Ringwood using the virtual golf simulators. Please check out their website link The House of Golf. from the SLP website Sponsors – Sunday Leave Pass and consider them for any golf purchases you make over the Christmas period. A few of our team event winners were all rewarded with X golf virtual golf simulator vouchers to use over the summer.

We would also like to make special mention to say thanks to Dale Robinson who has been a long-term supporter, player, and sponsor via DNR print of the Sunday Leave Pass Social Club. Dale is a 100plus game veteran and two times club seasons champion, 2x Golf trip Beer Wench and an important member of the club.

It's always important to remember who your sponsors within the social club are and to give them a referral or utilize their services if and when the opportunity ever arises. Dale has had an ongoing gentlemen's agreement with Sunday Leave Pass social club where any sales he receives via Sunday Leave Pass club members or SLP contacts he is willing to kick a percentage of the sale value back to the social club directly.

Cheap Printing check out what's' available don't forget to contact Dale if you need any Printing supplies for 2022. Please remember to support the guys in the club every chance that you get.

We are hoping some other members might be able to get involved and do some sort of sponsorship if the opportunity arises. We are happy to plug your product or promote your business in return for some sort of commitment to the finance or operation of Social Club.

Please let me know if there is anything you can do to get involved.

2021 Players Choice Awards

Thanks to all those guys who voted in the Sunday Leave Pass Players choice awards surveys, some of the voting was very close and the spread of nominations was equally distributed amongst a significant proportion of the field. Therefore, every vote was very important. Congratulations to all the winners who have now become immortalized in the social club archives as significant contributor to the Sunday Leave Pass history. <http://www.sundayleavepass.com/award-winners-hall-of-fame/>

Listed below is the graphic distribution of voting allocations so you can see how you went compared to the winners.

Barham Golf Club Golf Trip Results

GOLF TRIP 2021

Douggo joined us for a quick 18 holes at his home track in Mansfield, then we racked up a few more km in the afternoon, before taking on the highly regarded Black Bull golf course in beautiful Yarrawonga. What a golf course, this will have to be a golf trip destination in the not to distant future, although be warned you will need to start saving your pennies and you should also ask everyone you know, to give you golf balls for all of your Birthdays and Christmas' until we book in at Black Bull just so you have enough in supply to navigate the 18 holes with water hazards on every single one of them.

There is no better way to start the next day after playing 36 holes of golf and drinking a few too many frothies, than doing another 530am wake up call and another 120km drive to play golf. Thursday's adventures took in Rich River Golf course and then a late after noon practice round at Barham. Thomas Cooper took a liking to the Barham layout and despite suffering a heat stroke induced blood nose he tore the Barham course apart beating his handicap by an incredible 10 strokes.

Friday was the official starting day of the golf trip, so while the rest of the field were in their cars heading for Barham, we thought it was only fitting to play another 36 holes of golf to get primed and ready for the weekend. In order to avoid getting an unfair advantage over everyone else by playing Barham too many times, we elected instead to drive out to Swan Hill to get acquainted with Murray Downs golf course, before taking a detour on the way back home to Barham via Cohuna golf course which is famed for being the home course Stuart Appleby.

Murray Downs was a cracking course and Cohuna was a tight country track with more kangaroos than it had trees, which is hard to believe considering there were 136 trees on the left handside of the first hole alone.

The extended golf trip was a group of splitters and not relevant to Sunday Leave Pass Barham golf trip, so I won't mention how the driver missed the first turn off at the Ringwood Bypass and ended up on the wrong route right from the start. I won't mention the corrugated dirt roads, stalking the receptionist from Big 4 caravan park on linked in, and I will keep a secret about the guys picking up a beautiful, athletic single female player at Rich River. I will avoid mentioning the puffed up muscular poses that were used to portray a certain persons preferred pronoun throughout the entire extended golf trip.

So, once the remaining 18 Sunday Leave Pass crew arrived at Barham, it didn't take long for the party to kick in to gear. The car ride up from Melbourne provided ample time to lubricate the taste buds, if you were not the designated driver. And it wasn't hard to work out that none of the Douglas clan were going to be behind the wheel any time soon. It was amazing how after just two hours sitting on the back patio they had run out of room to put their empties.

Douglas family's apartment before they arrived.

It would have been interesting to see how many of these cans had been drained to the bottom, perhaps the Douggo family are the culprits who were only drinking the top half of their beverages. On Saturday night when the lights went up and the bar had called last drinks there were so many have finished soldiers left on the table that the club was able to top up their empty kegs and resell the same drinks for Sunday lunch service.

One thing we can be certain of, is that it wasn't Andrew Clarke who would have been leaving his drinks half empty. Andrew finished all of his own beverages plus everything else that was left unattended.

Clarkey was easily the best on ground when it came to enjoying his Sunday Leave Pass and time away from the family. At 400am on Saturday morning Big Mick was woken up by a huge crash in his apartment. Initially he thought a kangaroo had got trpped in the room. Evidently he soon discovered it wasn't a trapped animal.

Andrew had tried to run outside to fertilize the fern beds, but in his haste and alcohol fueled haze, he had forgotten to open the sliding door. Clarkey ended crashing straight into the door which left him with a bruise on the front of his forehead to compliment the perfect D tan line he had etched into the back of his head where he wears his hat without sunscreen.

Big Mick thought it was a great show, he was the perfect nursemaid for Andrew and held his hair back from his face as Clarkey recycled his chicken parmigiana, the cheese and pickled sandwiches half the cheese platter the Col had so kindly brought up for the group to enjoy. Evidently 22x beers, 6x Canadian Clubs, 4x Jim Beams and a couple of Douglas family specials is not a good recipe to mix together on your first night out on the town on 12 months.

To his credit once he finally staggered back into bed and caught a few ZZZZZ's, Andrew made it up to breakfast on Saturday morning, which is more we can say for a few of the others he had been partying with and despite how crook he was looking he still put on a pretty good show with the golf clubs.

On Saturday night Big Mick headed home early, he says it was to get a good rest and prepare to defend his title for the Ambrose championship, however when we dropped in to see if he was asleep he was set up in bed with a box of BBQ shapes, some popcorn with his TV remote in hand waiting for episode two of the Andrew Clarke show.

As it happens Andrew didn't back up his efforts on Friday, he behaved himself and whatsmore he returned the favor for Mick looking after him on Friday Saturday morning, by playing some steady golf and helping him to win the Beer and Berocca Shield for the second year in a row.

It was funny at one stage on the extended golf trip we thought Mick had arrived at the pub at Yarrawonga at the same time we had, then on a second glance we thought it must have been cliffy. As it happens once we chatted to this guy for a while, we found out he was the love child of the both of them.

As we all know, the two foreigners of the group otherwise known as our favourite boat people Tom and Todd have always been close. The guys are almost inseparable, so much so that almost all of our social club members use their names interchangeably.

Tom and Todd and are always hard to split apart and this seems to be the case even when it comes to there sleeping arrangements. The house keeper sent us this photo from apartment 3 room 2.

It will be interesting to see if in 12 months there is an Australian born little lovechild bouncing around the place with both a Canadian and an English passport.

According to the quote “Mimicry is the best form of flattery.” If that is the case then these two guys have the process down pat. Every round of golf Tom and Chris are moulding closer and closer to being identical twins. Now they are not only wearing the same facial hair and dressing the same but they are even using the same type of golf tees. Chris even tanked on Saturday just so he would be able to get the chance to get into the same dress as Tom did 2 years ago.

Chris did a great job playing the character as beer wench, he made Saturday night about love and mateship although we never caught a photograph of him serving the drinks, perhaps that is why there was probably so much money left unspent in the kitty at the end of the night. As hard as we tried to empty the account balance, we still have plenty of money in the fine jar for the start of next year, so we might organize another session at X-golf and continue the festivities there.

The beauty of playing golf on a simulator rather than in real time, is that although there are still hazards on the course you are playing they don't cost you the sufference of losing golf balls and generally they are easier to get out of than trying to do it for real. There was no shortage of trouble you could get yourself into at Barham, and over the duration of the two days we all managed to get into it multiple times. Of the 6 pressure balls we sent out on Saturday morning only two of them made it back to the club house in tact. Even one of those balls had to be fished out of the lake after being hit in the water and just two holes later Big Mick had to scale the wire boundary fence to retrieve it from out of bounds.

Todd Neilson didn't help his teams cause when he racked up a Newell plus two (12) with the pressure ball, however to his credit he kept it in play long enough to hand it over to the next player. Stu Coops was grateful to Douggo and Big Mick who set themselves up 45 degrees from the first fairway so they were able to mount a search party for Stu's first drive. Even still it took 2minutes 59seconds before the pressure ball could be found, and it went on to last three more holes before Thomas produced a replica of his dad's famous cover drive and put the ball out of bounds and in to the next suburb.

On any golf course there are hazards and then there are are HAZARDS!!!!. The fifth hole at Barham fits into the category of the latter description. Any one who landed in the huge crater in the middle of the fairway blocking the green, found it tough going. We didn't hear of anyone successfully getting their ball out on the first attempt. Cam Ross found himself on the green on the 3rd hole putting for bogey, he knocked his ball past the hole and into the bunker, many swats later and after three putting on the green again he finished the hole with the three putt monkey vest, a fine for putting from on the green to off the green, and another fine for throwing his club and worst of all an 11 written on his scorecard.

Hazards don't always need to be man made situations, Wayne James found himself faced with the difficult situation. After driving with precision and accuracy for 4 days in a row, Wayne had missed his only fairway for the week. When he ventured into the rough to find and play his golf ball he found himself face to face with a creature that was bigger than him, with an angry stare and no intentions to move away from the path where Waynes wanted to play his golf ball from.

Speaking of tall angry creatures, Steve Powne is neither of those things. Stevie however had an ever bigger smile on his face when he turned his status of Beer Wench at Morack to Winner on the golf trip and newly crowned Champion of Champions and FedEx points champion. What a difference a month can make. Steve had three practice rounds prior to jumping in the car for the drive out to Barham and clearly the practice paid off. Stevie shot a very impressive 90 off the stick. Nett 65 to win the day by a whopping 6 strokes. Steve's victory also saw him rewarded with an extra 650 FedEx points and with his second monthly title for the year he jumped up to the top of that leaderboard over taking Brent who we accidentally, falsely awarded the prize too. Although Brent has the trophy in his position the acclaim on the record books will be ammended to revere Steve Powne.

Steve Powne was a big presence on the golf trip, he stood out high and above the rest of the field. (Metaphorically speaking anyway.) Steve nearly got lost in the bushes when he walked into the scrub to help Thomas Cooper find his golf ball. Thomas eventually found the ball propped up in the thick scrub and like a typical "Cooper" tried to play the ball out from where the ball sat at his knee high level.

The funny thing was that; the knee high rough to Thomas Cooper equates to chest height for the blue smurf. It took Thomas nearly as long to find Steve in the rough as it did to find the golf ball.

Steve should have known he would not be able to go into the same deep grasses as Thomas was walking and expect not to get lost, especially since we all discovered on Friday Night that Thomas was nearly as tall as Stevie P. is when he is standing on his knees.

There was plenty of wildlife inhabiting the golf course and the nearby surrounds, we saw Kangaroos, Goanna's Bearded Dragons, Pelicans, Ducks, Kookaburra's, etc.

There was an abundance of different types of native bird life on the golf course however the only type of birdie in short supply was those that can be found on the scorecard. Only 2x players managed to claim their place on the birdies honourboard. Big Mick managed to go sub par on the 14th hole and Cider hit his approach shot on the long difficult par 4 sixth hole to make a tap in Birdie 3.

BIRDIES		NEWELL'S
Shane Cumming	6th Hole Par 4			Todd Neilson	2nd Hole Par 5 (12)
Mick Harper	14th Hole Par 5			Thomas Cooper	2nd Hole Par 5 (12)
				Newell Richards	2nd Hole Par 5 (10)
				Chris Westhead	2nd Hole Par 5 (10)
				Cam Ross	3rd Hole Par 3 (11)
				Colin Ewart	3rd Hole Par 3 (10)
				Colin Ewart	7th Hole Par 5 (12)

On the otherhand the Newell's list was very strong. 7x Newell's in total, including one from the namesake himself. Colin Ewart had the most Newells, (two) amassing 22 strokes from his Newell tally. Cam Ross found himself 11 strokes worse off than when he started after he overcooked a putt for bogey on the Par 3 third hole. Cam was on the green for three, off the green for four when his putt rolled into the bunker and things went downhill from there. Evidently the 2nd hole was the most difficult hole in the golf course. It accounted for more than 50% of the Newells for the day and the hole averaged nearly 2.5 strokes over par which means it played half a stroke harder than the next most difficult hole.

Newell Richards made the Par 4, 11th hole look difficult. Other than his blowout on the 2nd hole, Newell had Brent Douglas starting to feel a wee bit nervous, Newell had a lot of good holes on the front 9 whereas Brent was finding the Barham Course a challenge. After gaining a 2 shots advantage on the 10th hole Newell had the upper hand on the head to head match play.

But, Here is how Brent Douglas described the turning point of the afternoon.

“Newell’s drive on the 11th on the Saturday really helped my nerves go down a notch, I was starting to choke there for a bit 😬 but Newell took his foot off my throat when he stuffed up his tee shot.”

Newell had the honor after making a par (3) on the 10th hole. When he teed off, the ball shot out sideways and crashed into the safety fence at the end of the tee box, before ricocheting backward towards the tee markers. Newell's ball not only failed to go past the ladies tees, it almost didn't go past the mens tees. With a bit more force and the ball may have almost come so far back that it would have hit the golf carts.

Phil Plane did actually manage to hit his golf ball through a cart and he did so while Andrew Clarke was sitting in it. Phil hit his ball a bit wayward and it went between the golf clubs, over the storage cage, and passed directly over Andrew Clarke's shoulder. The ball exited at terminal velocity via the gap where the perspex windscreen was folded over to let the breeze in. According to Clarke it is the closest he has ever been to getting hit by a golf ball and if the windscreen had of been up the ball would have smashed it or bounced back into Clarke's head.

The only thing coming through the front and rear windows of the Newell vehicle was dust, it seems out on the country roads if you miss your turn off and when you are relying on google maps to get you back onto the correct route, there is a high probability you will end up driving on corrugated dirt roads. I would not want to criticize our pilots driving ability and navigational skills however our trip to Barham saw us driving on no less than 6x different gravel roads for periods ranging from 5 minutes to 45 minutes of tail sliding adrenaline fueled rally driving.

When it came driving on the longest drive hole, Peter Alphabet was very unlikely to get lost. His ball never travelled far enough to get off the beaten track. It is probably inappropriate to even use the word beaten when it came to his impact on the ball because he barely grazed it. Mick Harper won the longest drive hole with a 276 meter drive down the middle of the fairway, it was not as long as some drives he has hit in the past however when you put it in context and consider that he out drove Peter Alphabet by a mind boggling 268 meters it still sounds like a monstrous shot.

To make matters worse Peter was still 268 meters behind Micks drive after his 2nd swing because the ball did not appear to move.

Cam Ross may have been voted the least improved player in 2021 however he showed some promising signs on Sunday, interestingly he only just hit his golf ball past the Peter Alphabets longest drive mark on Sunday, however on this occasion the ball had to travel 287 meters down the fairway to do so.

The golf trip was fun for all. It is always a good way to catch up with a group of mates, drink beer and have a little bit of exercise in between the laughs and camaraderie.

The Barham course was a majestic setting to play, the course was awesome, pure fairways, long sweeping golf holes, hundreds of strategically placed bunkers and let us not mention the water hazards, most of which were hidden out of site until it was all too late and you had hit your ball into them. There was no questioning the fact that the golf course was hard and the scores reflected it, although I think even those of us who landed at the back end of the field would still say it was a great golf course, just a little bit long and hard. The layout was always interesting especially when it came to the long Par 3 holes, especially the 15th hole which at 190 meters up hill and into the wind meant most of us could not even get there with the driver off the tee.

The wind played havoc in Saturday morning, with strong cross winds blowing across the fairways it was tough to keep the golf ball in play. Consequently, it was a real challenge to keep the pressure ball in play. Two teams managed to play all 18 holes whereas the others fell short at either the 4th hole or the 7th hole.

Group 1	Group 2	Group 3	Group 4	Group 5	Group 6
Andrew Clarke	Glenn Douglas	Steve Osullivan	Stuart Cooper	Todd Neilson	Steve Powne
Colin Ewart	Cam Douglas	Newell Richards	Peter Calyvopoulos	Wayne James	Barry Hemsley
Phil Plane	Chris Westhead	Brent Douglas	Jamie Brunton	Tom Thorn	Chris Sfiligoj
	Shane Cumming	Mick Harper	Thomas Cooper	Cameron Ross	Ron Parsons
49	42	94	18	28	101

Steve Powne had little trouble hitting his ball around in the wind. Steve demolished the rest of the field. For the second time in 2021 the Blue Smurf had a runaway victory (6 strokes) and he claimed the champions of champions title and the FEDEX points cup trophy. There were only three candidates left in contention by the time we took to the fairways at Barham on Saturday morning, Brent Douglas held his nerve and was able to do just enough to keep ahead of Newell and the fast-finishing Mick Harper who danced his way into his favorite position, Bridesmaid (2nd Place). Mick has been in the top billing playoffs 9 times and from those attempts he has won once and been bridesmaid 8x times.

The Champion of Champions competition was played off between all of the players who won a monthly competition during the year; the champion of champions is the player who has the best score from all of the monthly winners who attended the golf trip. This competition was played off over 9 mystery holes on the Saturday competition with the player who scored the most stableford points taking out the title and adorned the coveted winner's jacket. Obviously, as the winner of the December title Steve Powne had already booked himself a ticket to the big dance after winning the April round at Dorset so the golf trip victory was just icing on the cake and a way of keeping a potential competitor at bay.

One could be forgiven for thinking Steve must have had inside knowledge about which holes were going to be included in the Champion of champions playoffs. He accrued an incredible 25 stableford points on the 9 mystery holes. Incredibly, Steve parred 5 of them.

During the official presentations, Newell handed over the coveted Blue jacket. It seemed bizaar to see the champions jacket getting put on to a person wearing the pink vest shirt, however I gues that is clear evidence that every day is a new day when it comes to playing golf. Steve was terrible at Morack in November and then just two weeks later he is holding up the biggest prize Sunday Leave Pass has on offer.

The jacket looked huge on Steve, so hopefully if he manages his flock correctly he will be able to claim 47 beers in 12 rounds and that should help him to add the extra kilo's needed to fit snugly into the SLP Champion of Champions jacket.

Speaking of sleeping snugly. Steve was excited to also win a new titliest wedge in the raffle. It was the only missing element out of his Sunday Leave Pass funded golf attire.

Steve won a driver in 2018 and the full set of irons last year so the only club missing was a wedge. Steve was so happy to hear his name drawn out for his chosen prize. The first thing he did when he got it home was to tuck it up snugly in bed as he did with all of his other clubs. It is a strange ritual, but who can argue it certainly seems to have worked for him.

Steve will be able to reap the long-term benefits for his Champion of Champions status. Next year as the Champion of Champions the Blue Smurf will be able to ask any Sunday Leave Pass member to buy him a drink, it is however limited to him only receiving one drink per member for the year (beer or soft or bourbon if he pays the extra $2 price difference) for the entire season and it can only be claimed if he is wearing the Champion of Champion jacket at the time.

This of course is excluding new or any members who didn't play at least one game in season 2021 but it is also not limited to those who attended the golf trip. So, to put it simply if you played at least one round of golf this year then Steve has the power to hit you up for a free drink at some point next year. If he manages himself correctly, he should be looking at up to 47 free beers or soft drinks over the next 12 months. Now that is a prize worth aspiring for. The other condition is that Steve must be the person who consumes the drink meaning he cannot use his power to buy beverages for anyone else and the drink must be opened and consumed at the time of purchase. They can not be used as takeaways to keep in the fridge to offer to guests at a dinner party.

The other covenant is if Steve has previously tapped you on the shoulder and he accidentally asks you for another free drink then he will be penalized, and he will be obligated to buy you a drink instead. Not that there will be much chance of it happening especially since Newell has already generated a drinks tracker App for him to download on to the phone to manage the list of names, so he can run a spreadsheet and debt ledger. Evidently this system worked well for Highway last year and he will be mentoring Steve and advising him how his primary target is to hit up all the non-regular players first.

Back in 2018 we introduced a new Sunday Leave Pass board event. It was decided that it wasn't fair to give all of the prestige to the monthly winners, especially since we now make such a big thing out of the person who is crowned as the Beer Wench each month. Therefore, we introduced a competition in the same format as the Champion of champions however called it the Beer Wench of Beer Wenches title where all of the last place finishers play off to be the worst of the worst. The competition was run over the same random holes as the champion of champions except the monthly title holders only used the scores from 8 of the holes and the golf trip Beer Wench takes his score from 9 holes.

Congratulations to Chris Sfiligoj who was the winner of this year's event as well as the runner up.

This year we once again trialed the 100% random group allocations for the Beer and Berrocca shield. It appears the consensus from the majority, (excluding the odd group) was that the handicapping system worked reasonably well, the handicap spread was more diverse however the final scores were still very close. It should be noted however that although we allowed the carry over Beer and Berrocca champions from season 2020 to defend their title, we might have to reconsider the system as it is not practical to have the same two guys winning year after year and the rest of us just making up the numbers for 2nd place. Congratulations to the winning group Andrew Clarke and Mick Harper they shot a score of 3 under par off the stick which was easily the best score for the day. Seven of the other 10 teams all scored within 2 shots of each other, and only 2-strokes separated the remaining 3x teams scores.

Congratulations and thanks to Rick and his helpers who did a fantastic job as fine master this year, despite missing five rounds over the duration of the season he still managed to have collected more money in the kitty than we were able to drink on Saturday night. We will use some of the excess fine money to buy drinks and food at our first The House of Golf virtual golf social event next season. Rick will continue as fine master in 2022. The challenge for Rick next year is to shake the coins out of the pockets of those who members whose names featured prominently in the voting for the Tight Wad award.

Winners are gridders

The Social club runs as a neutral organization and all of the money we raise each year is spent on prizes and we start each year with basically a zero $$$$ bank balance. As was to be expected the fine jar kitty was drunk almost drunken dry in the early hours of Sunday morning although there was a couple of hundred dollars which will be filed away to be used for BBQ's and stock purchases at the start of the new season. All of the proceeds of the social club activities which includes green fees, and beverage & merchandise sales were invested in the form of prizes for the end of year trip and the raffle draw. In total we had more than $4000 worth of prizes to give away. The spoils were spread over many of our members.

The raffle is conducted by issuing every player a ticket for each round of golf that they play over the course of the year. If a player wears the Sunday Leave Pass Club shirt to the round, they are given a second raffle ticket. We also run an 18x hole skins competition where every hole is worth one raffle ticket and a player wins raffle tickets for scoring a better stableford score than the rest of the field. In the skins competition whenever 2 or more players have the best score on a hole the raffle tickets carry over and jackpot until a unique hole-winner is achieved. Some players had some significant Jackpots through the year where they won 6 or more skins at the one time. This dramatically increases the number of raffle tickets a player has but at the end of the day the raffle all comes down to chance. As a matter of fairness, a player is only entitled to take home one prize no matter how many times their name is drawn in the raffle. A player is entitled to upgrade to a better prize if their name comes out again and the lesser prize is redrawn. In order to qualify for the Major Prizes a player must have played at least 6 rounds with the club or be in attendance at the Golf Trip to claim the prize. Congratulations to all of the winners.
